HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, May 4, 1931.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M. (Eastern Standard Time).

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

Unto Thee, O Lord, would we lift up our hearts in gratitude for Thy mercies. We have trusted in Thee,—let us never be put to shame. We hear Thee speaking to us this night as in days of old saying, "If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door." May we honestly strive to have always a conscience void of offense before Thee and in the sight of our fellowmen.

Through this Commonwealth tonight the underprivileged look to us for life's one big chance; the unemployed still plead for the right to eat bread in the sweat of their own faces; and the great mass of the common people long to see the Right triumph over every form of wrong.

Walk Thou in our midst tonight, O God. Guide our hearts into all wisdom. And when the records of the evening are written, may we each be able to look up into Thy face and not be so ashamed. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of April 29, 1931.

Speaker of House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Penna.

The East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Congregational Church now in session at Bethlehem, Penna., numbering approximately two hundred fifty ministerial and lay delegates and representing a constituency of more than twenty thousand communicants in Eastern Pennsylvania desires unanimously to go on record as being definitely opposed to any revision of the so-called blue laws of the State of Pennsylvania that might in any way tend toward the liberalization of our present laws governing the observance of the law today.

Rev. J. A. Smith, Secy. of Conference.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, the bill before you has been before you a number of times and has been debated at some length. I again want to reiterate in your presence and hearing that I am as good a blue as there is in Pennsylvania. I regret if any action of mine has in any way offended the extreme or indigo blues of Pennsylvania. William Penn, the founder of our Commonwealth, has in his works expressed dissatisfaction with sabbath laws, and I, feeling like all good Quakers should feel, think I ought to follow in his footsteps, and believe in his philosophy.

This bill will have for its effect an improvement of the Sunday law as it is now written. It will have no detrimental effect whatever. On the contrary, it will improve the morals of the community. It is a bill intended to divert the minds of the youth and of the old on Sunday and leisure hours from evil things to good constructive thought. It is a bill that will take the young and the old from the boathouses along the river, and down on the ocean front and from places of questionable character. It will take them from all those depths and take them to ball games in the afternoon where they receive some exhilaration, some excitement, something to tire their energy.

When the Mosaic law was written, the children of the Jewish race went out into the fields at the early sunrise and there they labored for a whole day until nighttime, and they stayed there working while the old lingered about the tents. That was the kind of society that existed when the Mosaic law was written. That is all a thing of the past. Today we are living in a great machine age; we are living in an age where the products of human consumption are made without even the touch of the human hand; we are living in an age where our youth does not get out in the fields in the early morning at sunrise and work till sunset; we are living in an age where our youth are taken to schools by luxurious automobiles; we are living in an age where that youth has no vent, no safety valve for its energy. In olden times the youth on Sunday deserved a day of rest. At the present time they don't labor and left alone to themselves on Sunday they can only be led into evil ways.

Now I want to say something to the extreme blue, then I will close with two or three remarks. In the city of Philadelphia the blues have gone so far as to arrest a Christian worker on the highways and on the lots. They have gone so far as to arrest a Salvation Army woman that was preaching the gospel of God, because by her side there was a bass drum. When there is a bill on the statute books that will permit men and women of such extreme views to turn down and to prevent the preaching of the gospel, then it cannot be said that that law is so good.

This evening, a few moments ago, I received a telegram from one of our greatest judges, a great Christian character, the Honorable Frank E. Smith. He says, "Dear Sowers, I hope you will vote and do everything in your power to pass the Schwartz base ball bill." That is from a man of experience; that is from a man that comes in contact with the youth; that is from a man that sits on the bench and when that man expresses his opinion that a free and idle time on Sunday should be occupied, it is worth a great deal of consideration at your hands.

I hold here in my hands, but I will not read it, the opinion of another christian gentleman, a judge of one of our courts, a judge, that rumor has had it, has been connected with every organization preaching christianity that existed in Philadelphia and that judge in this opinion says that these modern times require that on Sunday the free and idle time should be diverted from evil to good and that baseball is healthful and necessary.

I thank you for your attention and I turst that you will vote for this measure, and in doing so, let me assure you that this is the only state in the Union that does not have this measure, and these other states that have this measure, are no less christian and no less good than we are.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I now hold in my hand a resolution addressed to the House of Representatives which reads as follows:

"At a county-wide rally in defense of the American Sabbath, held on Sabbath afternoon, April 19, in the Methodist-Episcopal Church, Beaver Falls, Beaver County, Pennsylvania, and attended by five hundred citizens from every part of the county, the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

"That this assembly is opposed to any change in the present Sabbath law of Pennsylvania, that would in any wise weaken it that we commend those representing our country in the legislature for their stand in oppostion to any weakening of the law and request them to communicate this action to the Senate and House of Representatives of our state.

Respectfully signed: R. H. Martin,
President, National Reform Association."

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Batchelor.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Batchelor, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. Speaker, with pleausure.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, what was that figure the gentleman just read; how many people attended that meeting.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. Speaker, five hundred people.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask the gentleman from Beaver what is the population of Beaver Falls.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. Speaker, I don't know that I can answer that, but it is approximately twelve thousand people.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no desire to prolong this discussion, but I believe if those who are in favor of base ball on Sunday had called meetings last Sunday to get people in support of this bill, instead of getting five hundred, they would have gotten ten thousand.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not intend by any added remarks of mine to prolong the suspense of the membership of this chamber upon this all-important bill, which has already been discussed in the committee of the whole.

I seek only to remind some of you, who perhaps forget that this is, after all, nothing more than a local option measure submitted to the various cities, towns and boroughs of this Commonwealth. I do not forget, when I give due and timely consideration to this movement that one hundred and fifty-five years ago there assembled within the gates of that dear city that gave me birth the representatives of thirteen colonies, as little known to Eurpoe then as some of our backward states are to Africa today, with a population at that time of not more than three million people. After weeks of patient deliberation and careful consideration of the transgressions upon their liberties and their right as Englishmen, they finally declared to all the world that when nations become oppressed and people were enslaved, it was their right—nay more, it was their duty—to alter and abolish such a government, and to provide new safeguards for their future security and happiness.

Today, Mr. Speaker, we are facing a contest—either real or imaginary—in the hearts and souls of the citizenship of this great commonwealth of ours. Two million in the city where the Declaration was signed are waiting for determination of this question, and nine out of every ten in that great metropolis have expressed themselves in favor of this bill as amended on the floor of this House.

I do not forget, Mr. Speaker, that only last week seven sentiments of like character were uttered from other sections of this state, equally large and populous, where the people desire an opportunity to play this innocent game.

I believe when the devil sets up temptations on one side to lure the young and to open up the way of temptation that the church should be equally as broad and open up temptations on the other side. I believe the church will be more generally attended, I believe that a more zealous and earnest regard for religious worship will ensue, not so much because of base ball, but because of the tolerant nature of those who come here to make it possible.

Do you realize what the evils are today? It is not base ball or golf or innocent sport, it is damnable sin, downright sin and indifference on the part of many people to pay to an Almighty Providence that guards and protects us, unmindful and unthankful for all the things we live to enjoy. Why this condition of affairs with us. Why this large growing element that never attends the church? Why this element that is always mocking at the priesthood and clergy? It is because, I think, of that intolerant spirit, with disposition not to play fair that has driven away from the church doors thousands who, in good faith, would come and worship God and whom you cannot make worship by any act of assembly.

I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that only last week I received a special letter from the Post Office addressed to me from one of my constituents, asking my earnest help in behalf of three little boys that had gone to Bridge Water, up on the Neshaming Creek, at Croydon to visit an old friend of theirs, a gentleman with a beautiful home. These youngsters, one of them thirteen, one fifteen and the other twenty, happened to wander into the barn, and there they saw some old fishing rods, string and hooks, and they got a few worms, and went down on this man's wharf. They caught a little catfish and a little sunfish, and were in high glee, having a little outing that Sunday afternoon, when lo and behold this awful majesty of the law, which your votes put here, came along in the shape of a game warden and arrested these boys, and the squire in that particular section fined them all twenty-five dollars apiece and three dollars and a half costs.

Is that the principle upon which you today want to make the people of your country happy, or is the damnable spirit of intolerant puritanism that drove people out into the darkness, which denied to people even an opportunity in their day to kiss their own wives on the Sabbath? God forbid that they will encroach any further upon the liberties of our people.

I believe we have gone far enough, and if we want to take the right step we will vote for this bill.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks that have been presented from time to time in this matter and I have discovered, and I think rightly discovered that the object is to place on the statute books of Pennsylvania a law that will authorize a luxury to be placed where it was never intended. When we take our law of 1794 we find that it dealt exclusively with those things which were absolutely necessary and modified them to fit the existing conditions. Now they come here and ask that they may enter into that precinct and take out of it one the luxuries that were forbidden.

I have the highest regard for the citizenship of Philadelphia and I appreciate the situation into which they have gotten themselves, a situation which is a logical outcome of their having failed to observe the sabbath in the days that have gone by, until it has accumulated into a condition today that is almost unendurable, so they say.

Let me say to you that when this world itself was created in six days of labor there was consecrated the seventh day to rest and then that day was further sanctified, and when the human race with all the strength of its national experience back of it, had gone the way of the world, it became necessary to give a code of laws, the fourth of which dealt with the observance of the sabbath. I want to say here this evening, if we were to pass this piece of legislation authorizing the playing of Sunday baseball, at the next session of our Legislature they would bring in another luxury and argue that that was the experience with this luxury; but these things never were intended.

Let us be courageous now, intolerant though we may be, and though we may be so far benighted that we do not know what the march of time has brought to Philadelphia or elsewhere let us get awake to the fact that we should stand in a manly spirit in the presence of God and recognize the fact that we must not place upon the statute books something that may keep us from committing a misdemeanor under the laws of the Commonwealth but will cause us to sin against the laws of God.

If we today exonerate the people by the enactment of a law to prevent their commitment of a misdemeanor, what about the sin that rests in a breach of a decree of an Infinite God when he stayed the progress of human degredation in the centuries that have gone by. I, this evening appeal to you, not because two millions of people in any city of the Commonwealth ask it, not because any so called Christians or other individuals advise it, and I quote nobody's authority upon it. I could not see that my justification could come from such sources, but I say to you this evening that I am governed by what I believe is a conscience and in so doing I want to appeal not to the intellectual concept of the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I want to submit to the world and to every individual upon whom the responsibility of this piece of legislation rests, that if we legalize the Sabbath day to avoid the committing of misdemeanors how can we get away from that sin that must be on every soul that violates the teachings of an Almighty God.

I was brought up to worship at the most sacred altar that the world has ever seen, a mother's knee. I was led in my childhood and my youth by the unerring hand of a religious mother and I have drank from that most inexhaustible fount of riches that God has ever given to the human race, the infinity of a mother's love.

With that fresh in memory and reaching down into the very soul, I feel that I belong not to those who are intolerant, I feel that I belong not to those who are living in an age where they are mistaken in the cause and purpose for which we are called here, and, members of the House, I shall vote "No," so that in the ages that come I will live in the consciousness that if I commit a misdemeanor, I shall not commit any sin against my God.

I believe in baseball and in the other sports that are practiced very frequently, I regret to say in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I believe in all those things, and I may be childish, I may have misunderstood the march of time, I may have misinterpreted the principles of eternal life; all these things I may have done, but I could not play baseball on Sunday. I could not engage in any other sports on Sunday, whether or not they were violating a statute or making me amenable to the law of this land of ours. I appeal to your consciences, you who must stand in this age and at this time for succeeding generations, do you think that in the light of eternal life as it appeals to your conscience and to mine, do you feel that you can justify yourselves by placing upon the statute books of Pennsylvania a piece of legislation to avoid a criminal action or a misdemeanor in breaking the Sabbath Day and violating an act of the Eternal God?

I shall be governed this evening by a strength and courage I today possess, a courage predicated upon a conscience and not a courage that comes from the intellectual culture that is today quoted by those who bring to us the actions of other States, the testimony of any individual, the resolutions of any organizations.

I appeal to you this evening and ask that every member of this House vote no, because as the days go by and the splendor and grandeur of the greatest of the American Commonwealths, conceived in the sight of God and in the light of righteousness, in our endeavor to carry out the exercise of the human conscience without detriment to the race when it comes to the misapplication and the misinterpretation by mankind of the laws that govern, we find that we have gotten ourselves into difficulty, because you cannot solve it this way, and in the next term of this Legislature they will be writing into the statute books other luxuries that we are today enjoying in the present twentieth century of civilization in an attempt to break down that which is sanctioned by God and Christ. As long as the soul of man continues with the service that is imposed upon him by reason of the precept, so long will the American Republic stand, so long will the peace of this great Commonwealth grow and bear the burden of holding up not only a righteous nation but to Eternal God the righteousness that is essential for the salvation of the human race.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have all the admiration in the world for my good Christian friend from Indiana County. Each one of us knows his inner heart best. But I can say tonight that I am just as much a Christian as any other man in the House, or any lady. We know our own convictions, and as I say we know our own hearts best and if I were to meet my Maker tonight, I should say right now, I am ready. That is what every Christian should say. We have had in the past an organ put in the church and it was said, it is the work of Satan. Eventually choirs, paid choirs, came into the church, and then it was said that was the work of the Devil. And then eventually there was a kitchen attached to the church, and people held up their hands in holy horror and said that the church was going to perdition. Then today you have entertainments, you even have playlets, you even have pictures shows right in the church itself and on Sundays in the afternoons you will see the kiddies as well as some of the grown ones making their way to the churches to rehearse for the playlets they are giving.

If you criticize me or criticize any other members for voting for this bill, set the example right within your own church and within yourself. Don't criticize me for having the courage of my convictions. As Bulwer says, "Christianity is a religion which is jealous in its demands, but how infinitely prodigal in its gifts." They want everything for themseves and they don't want to give any favor to the unfortunate boy and girl who does not have the opportunities for exercise and enjoyment, to come in and say, "Have your enjoyment which we are attempting to give you." These children with their exuberance and vitality which is natural in youth have no way to exert it; there is no safety valve for these young folks. Do you want them to go into these booze joints and drink this poison booze, or is it not better for them to go over to the baseball fields and yell their little heads off.

Henry Ward Beecher, the great pulpit orator and lecturer, reasons on the Sabbath day as follows: "There are many persons who look on Sunday as a sponge to wipe out the sin of the week." He further says, "God's altar stands from Sunday to Sunday, and the seventh day is no more for religion than any other. The whole seven are for religion and one of them for rest, for instruction, for sociable worship, for gaining strength for the other six."

I received a letter this last week from a fine Christian lady asking me to read the Book of Judges, and how the Lord prosecuted the Israelites on account of their sinfulness. I fail to see that the Israelites in the early days violated the Sabbath day. It was because they visited and intermingled with the outlying tribes and became contaminated and that they finally worshipped Idols. That is why the Lord punished them; not because they had done anything on Sunday.

I can recall one of our good citizens of Pittsburgh who is one of the greatest Christians I think in organized baseball, sang with Rodehaver, the companion of Billy Sunday, sings in the church choir, takes a prominent part in his church, and yet manages a baseball team that plays on Sunday and is the manager of the Boston Nationals, Bill McKechnie; no one can criticize Bill McKechnie on account of his Christianity. There is an example of a man who sees no wrong in a game of ball on Sunday.

Swift says, "Laws are like cobwebs which may catch small flies, but let wasps and hornets break through." Now what does that mean? That means that the little innocent boy or the group of boys that could go on the sand-lots and play their game of baseball are run in in the patrol wagon to the police station and fined the next morning, and as I stated the other time I spoke in connection with this bill, the boys were playing in an attempt to purchase suits for the boys across the water, and they were arrested and fined the next morning. The patrol wagon backed up to the playground and took them away. But those men who are different from the little boy and the little girl, those who can afford it, go out on the golf links and I have seen ministers of the gospel in my own town on the golf links playing golf on Sunday afternoon and when they came to the golf house they stopped at the nineteenth hole, and when somebody had said, "Doctor, would you like a little nip," he looked around a little bit and said, "I would not mind," and he had taken his little nip and it was gone. That is the class of people who are attempting to criticize you and me and I say before you come here and criticize us, set a good example and go and show to us the right way.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I have no desire to prolong this discussion. I merely want to answer one or two remarks that have been produced against this bill during the present week.

One was a statement by the Rev. Dr. Fortney of Philadelphia in which he said that forty-six counties had voted against this bill, thereby trying to throw out the impression that the majority of the people of Pennsylvania therefore had voted against this bill. I merely want to point out to you the inconsistency of that remark. If you will note and watch the Legislative Journal of last week, and look over the members who voted for this bill and the members who voted against it, you will find that with one or two exceptions all the smaller counties voted against the bill, while the larger centers of population voted for it. The fact is that the small counties in this Legislature are over-represented, as high as four and five and six times. The average representative in this House has forty-seven thousand to forty-eight thousand people to represent. Berks is an average county, but we have a number of counties where there is a population of seven thousand up to eleven thousand and they have one vote, they are entitled to one vote here the same as those with forty-seven to forty-eight thousand people, or as high as fifty thousand people from the largest centers of population. If you would count up the constituents of the one hundred and three members who voted for this bill, and then add up the constituents of the ninety-nine or a hundred, or whatever it was, who voted against it you will find the one hundred and three members who voted for this bill represent approximately one and one-half times as many people in Pennsylvania as did the members who voted against it.

I would be the last man in Pennsylvania to take away from them their representation, especially from the rural districts. I represent a district partly industrial and partly rural, and I know the problems of the rural people, I know their hardships and I know what they are up against, and I would be the last man to come here and try to take away their representation which they now enjoy, but I do appeal to the rural members not to use that power in an arbitrary manner in order to dictate to the people from the larger centers of population.

Judging from some of the speeches in this House you would imagine this to be a divine law; this law of 1794. This is just a legislative act the Pennsylvania Legislature passed in 1794 and which was created by men. It was not a law written on the Statute books by God the Divine law is the law of God, and with that I have no purpose of interfering. I enjoy a good sermon, but I enjoy it in the pulpit and in the church where it belongs and not in the Legislature. This is a civil body and we are here as civil representatives to make civil laws and not to make divine laws.

Another thing in particular that was brought to my attention was the speech by Mr. John A. McSparran, now Secretary of Agriculture, in which he pleads against this bill. I have heard Mr. McSparran make speeches for about eleven years off and on. During that time I have heard him speak in Grange meetings and at Grange picnics, and at rural gatherings, and on these occasions Mr. McSparran was always at his best and on his best subject, and the best speech he ever makes is when he speaks to the people of rural Pennsylvania and always tells them they are the children of the great outdoors, that they are blessed, that they are the men and women who get out in God's open sunlight, get out in God's open air, and to breathe of God's fresh ozone, and become healthy and strong and vigorous. I never heard Mr. McSparran make a speech so earnest as the one I have heard him make in the last ten or twelve or more years in which he has made this statement and repeated this statement time and time again, telling the rural people that they are the specially favored people of God because they are permitted to live and enjoy God's open sunlight and God's open air, and God's sunshine, and they can breathe God's open air and the fresh ozone and become healthy and strong. Now here we are, trying to give to our brothers and sisters of the congested areas, our brothers and sisters who live in the city of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and in Reading and in other congested sections of population, such as I think are referred to by Mr. Beyer as cliff dwellers, the men who live down in the hot alleys, the men who live down along the hot narrow asphalt streets and when we are here now to give them a chance to come out into the open, to give them a chance to get out into God's open sunlight and God's open air, and to enjoy it, and to have a little recreation and refresh themselves, here are these men that say, "No, God forbids it." This is not, as I have said, a religious question. I have never interfered with any man's religion, and I don't propose to do so now, but if I understand America, it is a fundamental principle of American government that there shall be no union of church and the State, but that we shall keep the two separate, distinct and apart. As I understand America, America was conceived over yonder on the other side of the Atlantic, over in Europe, where hundreds of thousands of people lost their lives because one group said God was this and another group said God was that, and the groups clashed one with the other because their ideas of religion were different. It was out of the religious wars of Europe, and out of the civil wars of Europe as well, that America was born. America was made up by our forefathers, eighty per cent of whom came to America to escape some form of oppression. They fled either from religious oppression or civil oppression of some kind. They all fled away from oppression of one kind or another and they came here to America where they felt that they could worship God as they pleased, and where they could live their own lives in their own way, so long as they did not interfere with their neighbors and their neighbors' lives, and for these reasons the Puritans came to New England, so they could worship God as they pleased. It was for this reason that the Quakers came to Pennsylvania, and it was for a similar reason that the Catholics came to Maryland, and it was for a like reason that the Huguenots came and settled the Carolinas, each and all for the very same identical reason. Here they come, to America, to secure the elements of liberty they could not enjoy on the other side of the Atlantic, and when the Revolution was started and when they met in Philadelphia in 1777 to form our constitution and this nation of ours, the ruling kings of Europe said it was not possible to form a government in which so many varied religions had their headquarters, but our forefathers placed in the constitution a clause that said that no one shall interfere with the other fellows' religion, and they established here a civil government under which all elements could live, granting to each element the right to live their own life and to worship their God as in their own consciences they saw fit. Upon that we have stood down to 1931, but now they try to tell us the Blue Law of 1794 is a God-made law. It is no such thing. It is but a simple act passed by the Legislature of 1794, and those of you who are familiar with the lives of those times, those of you who have studied and who know something about the people of that period, know that the people of that period were very human indeed. They had plenty of good wine and plenty of good liquor and everything else. I am sometimes surprised at the ultra-Blues, to hear the eulogies of these old ones who had wine at their dinners and never took a meal or thought of entertaining their friends without having wine on the table, to hear their eulogies in this House of these men as ultra-Blue, and as men who are representative of God and God alone.

I want to say to you, ladies and gentlemen, this is a civil question. We have amended the constitution of the United States nineteen times, and we have amended even the constitution of 1753 almost fifty times. We have changed every other law and no complaint has been made, but whenever we attempt to change this law to bring it into conformity with modern life and customs of life of this nation of ours, we hear one member after another arise and preach a sermon here in the Pennsylvania Legislature. Let us consider this bill on its merits. Let us consider it as Americans, willing to allow the other fellow so far as possible to live his own life, allowing the people from the cities to come out also into God's open sunlight which they in the rural districts enjoy, and to live a life of happiness. I say to you, consider this matter as Americans, and then I am sure that you will vote for this bill.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in view of the forcible remarks of the gentleman from Berks, I would hesitate to speak, if I represented a small constituency. I do, however, represent a constituency of about ninety-five thousand people, including a third class city, and so I think I am entitled to speak.

Now this bill has been lauded by any number of former speakers as being a simon-pure local option measure, and yet, when I analyze this bill, if I can read correctly, it legalizes baseball every where in this Commonwealth, and if any municipality, or any township or any city desires to prohibit baseball within its borders, it can only do so by the method that is pointed out in this bill, to wit: by an ordinance. How, in the name of heaven, can a second class township pass an ordinance? In other words, if I read this bill correctly, it fastens itself upon one hundred thousand people in this Commonwealth who live in second class townships, who are powerless to enact an ordinance against baseball. For that reason I call your attention to the fact that it is not a simon-pure local option bill.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire at this time to emphasize what Mr. Bidelspacher has said, to wit: that it is not local option in so far as second class townships are concerned, and the greatest part of the area of this Commonwealth is made up of second class townships. This very fact would tend to defeat the local option part of this bill.

Take, for example, the city of New Castle. Suppose the city of New Castle should pass an ordinance preventing the playing of baseball on the Sabbath day? Shenango Township, Neshannock Township and Union Township, all second class townships, are just separated from the city by an imaginary line, and the game could be played in any one of those townships without any power in the city of New Castle or any one of those townships to prevent it. It is not in any sense a local option measure.

I desire, also, to call attention to some of the things that this bill is not. If it was such a great sin to arrest the boys for fishing on the Sabbath day, this bill will not correct that evil. If it was possible that in the City of Philadelphia members of a religious organization were arrested because they they were conducting religious exercises on the streets of Philadelphia, this bill will not correct that evil. This bill is proposed to make it legal to play baseball, not to fish nor to conduct a religious exercise on the streets of the City of Philadelphia or any other city.

I desire, also, to call attention to this fact: when I came to this House, I came with the most friendly feeling toward the City of Philadelphia. I have not yet lost those feelings, but I am surprised that the representatives of that great city would hold up to us, as the cure for all the evils of the City of Philadelphia, as a great moral measure, the playing of baseball on the Sabbath day.

We are, more or less, familiar with the morals of the City of Chicago, and if we had proof of the pudding, which is the eating, namely, the playing of baseball on the Sabbath day, I prefer the morals of the city of Philadelphia, bad as the gentleman pictures them to be. I propose to vote against this measure.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, several weeks ago the Department of Revenue handed me two bills which affect vitally the revenue of the Commonwealth. Inadvertently I admitted the last day for the introduction of bills in the House to pass. I hope the House will grant unanimous consent for the introduction of these bills at this time.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be noted in the Journal.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce bills, the titles of which were read by the Clerk for information.

The SPEAKER. The bills will be filed with the Chief Clerk.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1134, entitled:

An Act providing for liens in favor of the Commonwealth and every charitable association, corporation or other institution maintaining a hospital in this Commonwealth supported in whole or in part by public or private charity and furnishing therein care, treatment, and maintenance to persons injured in accidents upon the rights of action, claims or demands of such injured persons against other persons, corporations, partnerships, and other unincorporated associations whatsoever, for damages on account of negligence causing the injuries and upon the proceeds of the settlements of any such claims or demands.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MUSMANNO. I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1409, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four), entitled "An act authorizing the Superintendent of Public Instruction to place in each public school of this Commonwealth one copy of Smull's Legislative Hand-book following each decennial census, and bi-ennially one copy of the School Laws and Decisions, and providing for the same."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, the sponsor of this bill, is not in his seat.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the sponsor of this bill, I move that it be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1596, entitled:

An Act authorizing Frederick J. Osterling, Architect, a citizen of the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to bring suit in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

An Act providing for the preparation of plans and specifications and for the erection of two State institutions for the confinement and treatment of persons suffering from venereal diseases, on lands acquired therefor in the eastern and western parts of the Commonwealth; imposing duties in connection therewith upon the Governor, the Department of Property and Supplies, and the Department of Welfare; and making an appropriation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations for the purpose of further study.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1730, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections fourteen and twenty-two of an act approved the tenth day of June, eighteen hundred ninety-three (P. L. 419), entitled "An act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers, requiring certain expenses incident thereto to be paid by the several counties, and punishing certain offenses in regard to such elections," so as to provide that the names of candidates for Presidential electors shall no longer be printed on the ballot.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1409, Printer's No. 655, on page 10 of today's calendar, bills on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1409, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws thirty-four) entitled "An act authorizing the Superintendent of Public Instruction to place in each public school of this Commonwealth one copy of Smull's Legislative Hand-book following each decennial census and biennially one copy of the School Laws and Decisions and providing for the same"

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was postponed a little while ago. In the meantime I have conferred with the sponsor of the bill and I understand that House Bill No. 1763, which we have just passed takes the place of this bill and that House Bill No. 1409 is a repealer. Therefore, this bill should pass.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PENAL INSTITUTIONS

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to offer the report of the Commission appointed by Governor Fisher, pursuant to an act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, dated May 10, 1927, P. L. 882.

The report of the Commission was read by the Clerk.

The SPEAKER. The report will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Appendix to the Legislative Journal.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1086, as follows:

An Act requiring the departments and agencies of the Commonwealth and institutions maintained in whole thereby to purchase from the Department of Welfare certain articles manufactured or produced by the penal and correctional institutions of the Commonwealth and the surplus to be held and not sold in competition with free labor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Department of Welfare shall cause to be prepared a catalogue containing a description and price list of all the articles manufactured or produced by the penal or correctional institutions within its jurisdiction Copies of this catalogue shall be sent to all institutions supported in whole by the State to the Department of Property and Supplies and the receipt of said catalogue by each of them shall be sufficient notice to each of them that the articles described in said catalogue are or are about to be manufactured or produced by the labor of the inmates of the institutions within the jurisdiction of the Department of Welfare

Section 2 The several institutions maintained in whole by the State are hereby required to purchase from the Department of Welfare all articles or supplies manufactured or produced by the penal and correctional institutions of the Commonwealth which are needed for use therein or thereby and they shall not purchase any articles or supplies manufactured or produced from any other source until and unless the Department of Welfare shall first certify on the requisition made to it that such articles or supplies or the equivalent thereof cannot be furnished All requisitions for articles or supplies made as herein provided shall be honored by the State Department of Welfare as far as practicable

Section 3 At least thirty days before the commencement of each such State fiscal year the proper officials of each institution department or agency of the State shall report to the State Department of Welfare estimates for the ensuing year of the amount of supplies of different kinds required by them which shall refer to the catalouge issued by the State Department of Welfare in so far as the articles indicated are included within such catalogue No purchasing agency shall be allowed to evade the intent and meaning of this act by specifying slight variations from the standards adopted by the State Department of Welfare when the articles provided by it in accordance with its standards are reasonably adapted to the actual needs of the purchasing agency

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1007, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and ten of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish, and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," by prohibiting the purchase, sale and exposing for sale of large and small mouth bass caught in waters without this Commonwealth, and received in interstate commerce or otherwise.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Cauffiel.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Cauffiel, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill kindly state the purpose behind it?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been introduced on behalf of the Fish Commission, and the purpose of the bill is to enact that section of the federal law into the law of Pennsylvania, which is known as the Hawes Bill. The idea of enacting this into the Pennsylvania law is to provide reciprocal protection, and to allow the Federal agencies to intervene when there has been a violation in the inter-state shipment of any game fish. It is to give game fish a game fish's protection, and not to allow it to appear upon the markets with other allowed fish. It is not my legislation, it is the Fish Commission's legislation, and as I say its only purpose is to enact that federal statute into this House bill.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, how can we regulate interstate commerce by Pennsylvania statute?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, so far as that is concerned, it also extends the same provisions to intra-state commerce. For instance, if the fisherman takes these fish out of the small lake, it would not allow them to be marketed, the purpose being to deter persons who would do that sort of thing.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, this amendment provides that fish caught outside of the Commonwealth, brought in by virtue of inter-state commerce, could not be sold; is that right?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, these particular black bass.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, do you think we can regulate inter-state commerce?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, no; we would regulate the sale here in the State, and not the inter-state commerce.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Cauffiel, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will this bill prohibit the people in the city from buying fish?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, not so far as I know.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, this particular kind of fish?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, yes; it will prohibit them from being bought and sold in the open market.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, then you are going to keep this kind of fish for the farmers?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, how will the people in the cities, get this fish?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, go out and catch them.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, can't they buy them from the farmers?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, no; they can't buy them from anybody.

Mr. SOWERS. No? That is a bad bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1931 129th of the General Assembly

Vol. 12 HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1931 No. 44

SENATE

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1931.

The Senate met at 10.00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Our Divine Master, we observe that in sections of our Commonwealth this week is being devoted to consideration of the needs, the welfare of our boys. We pray Thy blessing to rest upon the boys of our State and nation, yet, of the entire world. May we strive to produce such conditions and promote such environment for them as will enable them to bring out the very best that is in them, giving them better opportunities than were enjoyed by previous generations.

While we rightfully are concerned about the conservation of our natural resources, may we realize that our most important resources consist of the manhood and womanhood of our State and nation; and that by the conservation of these qualities the real grandeur of our national life will be achieved.

We ask for these mercies in Thine own Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HEATON, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE RECEDES FROM ITS AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 427

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has receded from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to House Bill No. 427, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of article seventeen of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581), entitled "The First Class City Charter Law."

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor and amended by the House of Representatives, which amendments were non-concurred in by the Senate.

RESOLUTION RETURNING TO THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 427, WITHOUT AMENDMENTS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1931.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 427, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of article seventeen of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581), entitled "The First Class City Charter Law."

be returned to the Governor without amendment.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the Resolution?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I am glad to learn that the House has receded from its amendments to this bill. Last Thursday City Council met at Philadelphia and unanimously passed a resolution requesting the General Assembly of Pennsylvania as follows:

"Resolved, By the Council of the City of Philadelphia, That the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, be, and are hereby requested to give favorable consideration to House Bill No. 427, as originally reported from Committee, authorizing an increase in the emergency borrowing capacity of the City of Philadelphia to eight million ($8,000,000) dollars."

And further "Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania."

At a meeting held by City Council last Monday, which was attended by the Mayor and by every welfare group that is doing charitable work in Philadelphia, it was unanimously decided that the original bill of $6,000,000 should be the bill to be passed by the Legislature and placed upon the Governor's desk for his signature.

When that bill was introduced into the House it passed without a dissenting vote. It then came into this Chamber and was referred to the Committee on Municipal Affairs, of which I have the honor to be chairman, and at that time amendments were offered to that bill by the Attorney General, Mr. Schnader. These amendments were given to me with the information that it was in this amended form the Governor would approve the bill; and it was so amended to comply with the wishes of His Excellency, the Governor. In that form the bill was passed.

I am informed now by Mayor Mackey, by Mr. Cox, President of City Council, and by others who attended a conference with His Excellency, the Governor, that he promised to sign that bill, and they went home feeling satisfied that the work was done.

The Lloyd Committee asked for only $1,500,000 to take care of the unemployed in Philadelphia. The Governor asked City Council to increase that amount to $2,000,000, and they agreed. He then asked them to increase it to $3,000,000 and they agreed. Now, for some unknown reason, he invites the sponsor of the bill to withdraw it. Why the sponsor withdrew the bill is unexplained.

I would like to read to the Senate part of an editorial in today's Inquirer, an editorial discussing Governor Pinchot and City Council. The article concludes as follows:

"However, this a matter for our own citizens, not for the Governor, to deal with. If the Councilmen insist that the entire emergency loan is positively essential, that otherwise disaster may fall upon a great many of the public's protective forces, it would seem to be the duty of Mr. Pinchot to take them at their word.

"In any event, the responsibility has been placed upon his shoulders, and it is not for him to assume judicial robes and judge the situation according to personal opinion or from political viewpoints."

That bill will be placed upon the Governor's desk. A committee of 100 of the leading citizens of Philadelphia either has been or will be immediately appointed to appeal to the Governor to sign that bill. We want to give to the unemployed every dollar that the city can afford. But, Mr. President, there is another emergency facing the City of Philadelphia: we need the $3,000,000 to take care of the pay for the policemen and firemen. Our budget has been short-changed, and after August 15th the City will not have a dollar with which to pay the firemen and the policemen who guard our homes, our wives and our children; and it is just as important to take care of the families of these, our protectors, as it is to take care of the unemployed.

The financial mess in which we find ourselves at the present time is not due to the City Comptroller; it is not due to Council; but there is a shortage a deficiency, in the collection of taxes today amounting to $19,000,000. That is the fix we are in.

We ask the Governor not to play politics with this bill. We want $6,000,000. This will enable us not only to take care of the unemployed but we will also have sufficient money to take care of the families of our firemen and our policemen.

Therefore, I appeal to the Governor to lay aside prejudice, to lay aside politics, and to sign this bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, just one word more on this bill, so that the Senators may understand the situation. When Council met in the beginning of this year, it was faced with the financial difficulties of our people, particularly the financial difficulties of that class of persons who in the days gone by have been frugal, have saved their money, and, in the saving of that money were enabled to buy little homes in which to reside. Many of them had lost their employment, and Council decided that under the conditions it would be unwise and unfair to punish those hard working citizens who were buying their little homes, or owned them, by increasing the tax rate.

The City of Philadelphia is not financially embarrassed. We have owing to the City many times the amount that would be necessary to take care of the exigencies of the present year. But City Council and the Mayor, and the other people in the City of Philadelphia, do not feel that this is the time to put the screws down on the small property owners of the city. They do not want to take drastic action, by putting the homes of these people up at sheriff's sale. They want to give their citizens an opportunity to get on their feet, carry them along until times get better and they will be employed and able to pay the taxes on their homes.

It is not a question of wild financing; it is a question of taking care of our citizens in the hour of need. We are not financially embarrassed—there is on the books in the tax office of Philadelphia far more than sufficient to meet all of our current expenses.

The only way we can raise the money for the paying of the firemen and policemen after next September, if the Governor does not sign this bill, will be by driving these poor people out of their homes, by insisting upon their paying their arrearages of taxes; and that, we, in the City of Philadelphia, do not want to do. That is a thing I do not believe any fair minded person would like to see happen.

I charge no man with politics; I charge no man with any indiscretion in this matter; and I am perfectly convinced that when the facts are brought home to the Governor as to the true situation, he will sign this bill. It is a measure for the benefit of not only the very poor, the unemployed, it is for the benefit of the poor property owner in Philadelphia, who is just temporarily poor; and as soon as the wheels of industry start turning again these people will earn enough money to pay their taxes, and they will pay them promptly; and we will have far more than sufficient money next year to pay all this obligation, and will not be put in the position of imposing an additional tax on the small property owner of Philadelphia.

This is a proposition for the benefit of all the people, and particularly for the benefit of the police and fire departments of Philadelphia. For a big city like the City of Philadelphia to allow the personnel of its fire and police departments to go unpaid would mean hardship not only for the policemen and firemen, but it would be a hardship on the entire community; and I know that no man, not even the Governor, would stand in our way on this question.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the resolution?

ANNOUNCEMENT RELATIVE TO INDUCTION INTO OFFICE OF HONORABLE PHILIP H. DEWEY

The PRESIDENT, Hon. Philip H. Dewey will be inducted into Office as Secretary of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania at twelve o'clock Noon, Eastern Standard Time, in the Department of Internal Affairs, second floor, north wing. Members of the Senate are invited to be present at the ceremony.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 665, as follows:

An Act to expedite and simplify the collection and payment by banks of checks and other instruments for the payment of money

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That DEFINITIONS The word "bank" when used in this act shall include any person copartnership or association or corporation engaged in the business of receiving and paying deposits of money within this Commonwealth A branch or office of any such bank shall be deemed a bank for the purpose of this act

The word "item" when used in this act means any check note or other instrument providing for the payment of money

Section 2 BANK IS AGENT FOR COLLECTION Except as otherwise provided by agreement and except as to subsequent holders of a negotiable instrument payable to bearer or indorsed specially or in blank where an item is deposited or received for collection the bank of deposit shall be agent of the depositor for its collection and each subsequent collecting bank shall be sub-agent of the depositor but shall be authorized to follow the instructions of its immediate forwarding bank and any credit given by any such agent or subagent bank therefor shall be revocable until such time as the proceeds are received in actual money or an unconditional credit given on the books of another bank which such agent has requested or accepted Where any such bank allows any revocable credit for an item to be withdrawn such agency relation shall nevertheless continue except the bank shall have all the rights of an owner thereof against prior and subsequent parties to the extent of the amount withdrawn

Section 3 ITEM ON SAME BANK A credit given by a bank for an item drawn on or payable at such bank shall be provisional subject to revocation at or before the end of the day on which the item is deposited in the event the item is found not payable for any reason Whenever a credit is given for an item deposited after banking hours such right of revocation may be exercised during the following business day

Section 4 LEGAL EFFECT OF INDORSEMENTS An indorsement of an item by the payee or other depositor "for deposit" shall be deemed a restrictive indorsement and indicate that the indorsee bank is an agent for collection and not owner of the item

An indorsement "pay any bank or banker" or having equivalent words shall be deemed a restrictive indorsement and shall indicate the creation of an agency relation in any subsequent bank to whom the paper is forwarded unless coupled with words indicating the creation of a trustee relationship and such indorsement or other restrictive indorsement whether creating an agency or trustee relationship shall constitute a guaranty by the indorser to all subsequent holders and to the drawee of payor of the genuineness of and the authority to make prior indorsements and also to save the drawee or payor harmless in the event any prior indorsement appearing thereon is defective or irregular in any respect unless such indorsement is coupled with appropriate words disclaiming such liability as guarantor

When a deposited item is payable to bearer or indorsed by the depositor in blank or by special indorsement the fact that such item is so payable or indorsed shall not change the relation of agent of the bank of deposit to the depositor but subsequent holders shall have the right to rely on the presumption that the bank of deposit is the owner of the item The indorsement of an item by the bank of deposit or by any subsequent holder in blank or by special indorsement or its delivery when payable to bearer shall carry the presumption that the indorsee or transferee is owner provided there is nothing upon the face of the paper or in any prior indorsement to indicate an agency or trustee relation of any prior party But where an item is deposited or is received for collection indorsed specially or in blank the bank may convert such an indorsement into a restrictive indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser the words "for deposit" or "for collection" or other restrictive words to negative the presumption that such bank or deposit or indorsee bank is owner and in the case of an item deposited or received for collection payable to bearer may negative such presumption by indorsing thereon the words "received for deposit" or "received for collection" or words of like import

Section 5 DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY OF BANK COLLECTING AGENTS It shall be the duty of the initial or any subsequent agent collecting bank to exercise ordinary care in the collection of an item and when such duty is performed such agent bank shall not be responsible if for any cause payment is not received in money or an unconditional credit given on the books of another bank which such agent bank has requested or accepted An initial or subsequent agent collecting bank shall be liable for its own lack of exercise of ordinary care but shall not be liable for the neglect misconduct mistakes or defaults of any other agent bank or of the drawee or payor bank

Section 6 RULES OF ORDINARY CARE IN FORWARDING AND PRESENTMENT (a) Where an item is received on deposit or by a subsequent agent bank for collection payable in another city borough incorporated town or township it shall be deemed the exercise of ordinary care to forward such item by mail not later than the business day next following its receipt either (1) direct to the drawee or payor in the event such drawee or payor is a bank or (2) to another bank collecting agent according to the usual banking custom either located in the city borough incorporated town or township where the item is payable or in another city borough incorporated town or township

(b) Where an item is received on deposit or by a subsequent agent bank for collection payable by or at another bank in the same city borough incorporated town or township in which such agent bank is located it shall be deemed the exercise of ordinary care to present the item for payment at any time not later than the next business day following the day on which the item is received either (1) at the counter of the drawee or payor by agent or messenger or (2) through the local clearing house under the regular established procedure or according to the usual banking custom where the collecting or payor bank is located in an outlying district

(c) The designation of the above methods shall not exclude any other method of forwarding or presentment which under existing rules of law would constitute ordinary care

Section 7 ITEMS RECEIVED THROUGH THE MAIL Where the item is received by mail by a solvent drawee or payor bank it shall be deemed paid when the amount is finally charged to the account of the maker or drawer

Section 8 ITEMS LOST IN TRANSIT Where an agent bank forwards an item for collection it shall not be responsible for its loss or destruction in transit or when in the possession of others for its inability to repossess itself thereof provided there has been no lack of ordinary care on its part

Section 9 MEDIUM OF PAYMENT Where ordinary care is exercised any agent collecting bank may receive in payment of an item without becoming responsible as debtor therefor whether presented by mail through the clearing house or over the counter of the drawee or payor in lieu of money either (1) the check or draft of the drawee or payor upon another bank or (2) the check or draft of any other bank upon any bank other than the drawee or payor of the item or (3) such method of settlement as may be customary in a local clearing house or between clearing banks or otherwise Provided That whenever such agent collecting bank shall request or accept in payment an unconditional credit which has been given to it on the books of the drawee or payor or on the books of any other bank such agent collecting bank shall become debtor for such item and shall be responsible therefor as if the proceeds were actually received by it in money

Section 10 MEDIUM OF REMITTANCE Where ordinary care is exercised any agent collecting bank may receive from any subsequent bank in the chain of collection in remittance for an item which has been paid in lieu of money the check or draft of the remitting bank upon any bank other than itself or the drawee or payor of the item or such other method of settlement as may be customary Provided That whenever such agent collecting bank shall request or accept an unconditional credit which has been given to it on the books of the remitting bank or on the books of any other bank such agent collecting bank shall become debtor for such item and shall be responsible therefor as if the proceeds were actually received by it in money

Section 11 ELECTION TO TREAT AS DISHONORED ITEMS PRESENTED BY MAIL Where an item is duly presented by mail to the drawee or payor whether or not the same has been charged to the account of the maker or drawer thereof or returned to such maker or drawer the agent collecting bank so presenting may at its election exercised with reasonable diligence treat such item as dishonored by non-payment and recourse may be had upon prior parties thereto in any of the following cases

(a) Where the check or draft of the drawee or payor bank upon another bank received in payment therefor shall not be paid in due course

(b) Where the drawee or payor bank shall without request or authority tender as payment its own check or draft upon itself or other instrument upon which it is primarily liable

(c) Where the drawee or payor bank shall give an unrequested or unauthorized credit therefor on its books or the books of another bank or

(d) Where the drawee or payor shall retain such item without remitting therefor on the day of receipt or on the day of maturity if payable otherwise than on demand and received by it prior to or on such day of maturity

Provided however That in any case where the drawee or payor bank shall return any such item unpaid not later than the day of receipt or of maturity as aforesaid in the exercise of its right to make payment only at its own counter such item cannot be treated as dishonored by non-payment and the delay caused thereby shall not relieve prior parties from liability

Provided further That no agent collecting bank shall be liable to the owner of an item where in the exercise of ordinary care in the interest of such owner it makes or does not make the election above provided or takes such steps as it may deem necessary in cases (b) (c) and (d) above

Section 12 NOTICE OF DISHONOR OF ITEMS PRESENTED BY MAIL In case of the dishonor of an item duly presented by mail as provided for in the next preceding section notice of dishonor of such item to prior parties shall be sufficient if given with reasonable diligence after such dishonor and further in the event of failure to obtain the return of any such item notice of dishonor may be given upon a copy or written particulars thereof and delay in giving notice of dishonor caused by an attempt with reasonable diligence to obtain return of such item shall be excused

Section 13 INSOLVENCY AND PREFERENCES (a) When the drawee or payor or any other agent collecting bank shall fail or be closed for business by the Secretary of Banking or by action of the board of directors or by other proper legal action after an item shall be mailed or otherwise entrusted to it for collection or payment but before the actual collection or payment thereof it shall be the duty of the receiver or other official in charge of its assets to return such item if same is in his possession to the forwarding or presenting bank with reasonable diligence

(b) Except in cases where an item or items are treated as dishonored by non-payment as provided in section eleven when a drawee or payor bank has presented to it for payment an item or items drawn upon or payable by or at such bank and at the time has on deposit to the credit of the maker or drawer an amount equal to such item or items and such drawee or payor shall fail or close for business as above after having charged such item or items to the account of the maker or drawer thereof or otherwise discharged his liability thereon but without such item or items having been paid or settled for by the drawee or payor either in money or by an unconditional credit given on its books or on the books of any other bank which has been requested or accepted so as to constitute such drawee or payor or other bank debtor therefor the assets of such drawee or payor shall be impressed with a trust in favor of the owner or owners of such item or items for the amount thereof or for the balance payable upon a number of items which have been exchanged and such owner or owners shall be entitled to a preferred claim upon such assets irrespective of whether the fund representing such item or items can be traced and identified as part of such assets or has been intermingled with or converted into other assets of such failed bank

(c) Where an agent collecting bank other than the drawee or payor shall fail or be closed for business as above after having received in any form the proceeds of an item or items entrusted to it for collection but without such item or items having been paid or remitted for by it either in money or by an unconditonal credit given on its books or on the books of any other bank which has been requested or accepted so as to constitute such failed collecting or other bank debtor therefor the assets of such agent collecting banks which has failed or been closed for business as above shall be impressed with a trust in favor of the owner or owners of such item or items for the amount of such proceeds and such owner or owners shall be entitled to a preferred claim upon such assets irrespective of whether the fund representing such item or items can be traced and identified as part of such assets or has been intermingled with or converted into other assets of such failed bank

Section 14 ACT NOT RETROACTIVE The provisions of this act shall not apply to transactions taking place prior to the time when it takes effect

Section 15 CASES NOT PROVIDED FOR IN ACT In any case not provided for in this act the rules of law and equity including the law merchant and those rules of law and equity relating to trusts agency negotiable instruments and banking shall continue to apply

Section 16 UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it

Section 17 SHORT TITLE This act may be cited as the "Bank Collection Act of 1931"

Section 18 REPEAL All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, blessed Lord, that the doors of golden opportunities still swing wide open before us this glad morning. We have made solemn vows to our homes, our country, and to Thee. Amid all the forces of evil that would fight against us and hinder the performance of our vows, may we hear Thee saying—"Lo, I am with you always; even unto the end of life."

Give to us plentiously of Thy wisdom this day that our labors here may both bless the peoples of this Commonwealth and glorify Thy dear name. May we be strong and clear in our convictions and determined in our endeavors to do the right.

Bless the Speaker and each member of this House. Bless too, we pray Thee, these employees who toil long into the night. Remember in mercy all in authority over us, and give unto us all Thy peace. For Christ's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. McElwee, seconded by Mr. Graham, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1463, entitled:

An Act concerning the ascertainment of principal and income and the apportionment of receipts and expenses among tenants and remaindermen and to make uniform the law with reference thereto

The first, second and third sections were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That DEFINITION OF TERMS "Principal" as used in this act means any realty or personalty which has been so set aside or limited by the owner thereof or a person thereto legally empowered that it and any substitutions for it are eventually to be conveyed delivered or paid to a person while the return therefrom or use thereof or any part of such return or use is in the meantime to be taken or received by or held for accumulation for the same or another person

"Income" as used in this act means the return derived from a principal

"Tenant" as used in this act means the person to whom the income is first payable or for whom it is accumulated or who is beneficially entitled to the possession of the principal presently and for a time prior to its distribution

"Remaindermen" as used in this act means the person ultimately entitled to the principal whether named or designated by the creator of the principal or determined by operation of law It also includes the person entitled to the income after the rights of the tenant shall cease

"Trustee" as used in this act includes the original trustee of any trust to which the principal may be subject and also any succeeding or added trustee

Section 2 APPLICATION OF THE ACT POWERS OF SETTLOR This act shall govern the ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses between tenants and remaindermen in all cases where a principal has been established with or without the interposition of a trust Provided however That the creator of the principal or any person thereto legally empowered may make any provisions he desires touching matters covered by this act and may himself direct the manner of ascertainment of income principal and expenses or grant discretion to the trustee or other person to do so and such provision and discretion where not otherwise contrary to law shall control notwithstanding this act

Section 3 INCOME AND PRINCIPAL DISPOSITION (a) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered in return for the use of principal shall be deemed income unless otherwise expressly provided in this act Such receipts shall include those paid as rent of realty or hire of personalty or dividends on corporate shares payable other than in shares of the corporation itself or interest on money loaned or interest on or the rental or use value of property wrongfully withheld

(b) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as a refund or replacement or change in form of principal shall be deemed principal unless otherwise expressly provided in this act Such receipts shall include those paid as the consideration for the sale or other transfer not a leasing or letting of property forming a part of the principal or as a repayment of loans or in liquidation of the assets of a corporation or as the proceeds of property taken on eminent domain proceedings where separate awards to tenant and remainderman are not made or as proceeds of insurance issued for the benefit of both tenant and remainderman upon property forming a part of the principal shall be deemed principal Any profit or loss resulting upon any change in form of principal shall inure to or fall upon the principal

(c) All income after payment of expenses properly chargeable to it shall be paid and delivered to the tenant at regular intervals or retained by him if already in his possession while the principal shall be held for ultimate distribution as determined by the instrument by which it is created or by law

The fourth section was read as follows:

Section 4 APPORTIONMENT OF INCOME Whenever a tenant shall have the right to income from periodic payments which shall include rent interest on loans and annuities but shall not include dividends on corporate shares and such right shall cease and determine by death or in any other manner at a time other than the date when such periodic payments should be paid he or his personal representative shall be entitled to that portion of any such income next payable as the time elapsed from the last due date of such periodic payments to and including the day of the determination of his right bears to the total period during which such income would normally accrue The remaining income shall be paid to the person or persons next entitled thereto by the terms of the transaction under which the principal was established But no action shall be brought to recover such apportioned income of any portion thereof until after the day on which it would have become due but for the determination of the right of the tenant entitled thereon The provisions of this section shall apply whether an ultimate remainderman is specifically named or not Likewise when the tenant first become entitled to take such periodic payments as income at a time other than their payment dates he shall only receive that portion of such income as the period during which he has been so entitled bears to the total period during which such income would normally accrue

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

An Act declaring and adopting the hemlock (Tsuga Canadensis Linnaeus) as the State tree of Pennsylvania

Whereas The hemlock (Tsuga Canadensis Linnaeus) is still today as it was of old the tree most typical of the forests of Pennsylvania and

Whereas The hemlock yielded to our pioneers the wood from which they wrought their cabin homes and

Whereas The hemlock gave its bark to found a mighty industry and

Whereas The hemlock everywhere lends kindly shelter and sure haven to the wild things of forests and

Whereas The lighted hemlock at Christmas time dazzles the bright eyes of the child with an unguessed hope and bears to the aged in its leaves of evergreen a sign and symbol of faith in immortality now therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the hemlock tree (Tsuga Canadensis Linnaeus) be adopted as the State tree of Pennsylvania

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies to be expended by it in the payment of the Harrisburg Railways Company of the City of Harrisburg of a part of the damages occasioned by the erection by the Commonwealth of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge

Whereas the erection by the Commonwealth of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge destroyed certain property of the Harrisburg Railways Company including the double track line of street railway on State Street in the City of Harrisburg from Filbert Street to Thirteenth Street and

Whereas the said Railways Company presented to the Department of Property and Supplies during the administration of the Honorable John S. Fisher as Governor its estimate of the damages due to said construction in the amount of Eighty-seven Thousand Six Hundred and Ninety-six Dollars and Eighty-five Cents ($87,696.85) and

Whereas the Secretary of Property and Supplies advised the Governor that in his opinion the said estimate was just and reasonable and

Whereas the Honorable John S Fisher in his message to the Legislature on January sixth one thousand nine hundred thirty-one recommended the making of an appropriation to said Railways Company to pay it for the damages occasioned by the Commonwealth and

Whereas the Commonwealth requested the said Railways Company not to construct a double track street railway line on Filbert Street and on the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge to which request the Railways Company agreed to accede if the Commonwealth would pay to it as settlement for the above mentioned damages the sum of Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($75,000) and

Whereas it became necessary for the Railways Company to construct as a substitute for the State Street line a double track street railway line on Herr Street from Seventh Street to Cameron Street in order to get access to its car barns and

Whereas the actual cost of constructing said line on Herr Street was Fifty-four Thousand Six Hundred and Twenty-three Dollars and Fourteen Cents ($54,623.14)

Therefore Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same That Fifty-four Thousand Six Hundred and Twenty-three Dollars and Fourteen Cents ($54,623.14) or as much thereof as may be necessary be and it hereby specifically is appropriated to the Department of Property and Supplies to be paid by it to the Harrisburg Railways Company in the City of Harrisburg to reimburse said Railways Company for the actual cost of building the double track street railway line on Herr Street from Seventh Street to Cameron Street made necessary by the destruction of said Company's line of street railway on State Street being part of the damages occasioned by the building of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Bridge

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1178 (Senate Bill No. 177), on page 17 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Rice,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1178 (Senate Bill No. 177), entitled:

An Act authorizing building and loan associations to permit borrowers to have the dues on the stock credited on account of the principal of the loan and providing for the reduction of the stock in certain cases and defining the duties of the secretary of the association in respect thereto and providing also for the increase of the subsequent dues on the stock in certain cases and providing further that the stock shall not be subject to losses except for the profits in certain cases

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 10, by inserting after the bracketed word "[by]" the following: "in accordance with".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1456, Printer's No. 561, on page 16 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Sowers,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1456, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 857), entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and councel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copies by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith"; by increasing the salary of registration commissioners.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 5, 1931.

The Hon. James F. Woodward is now a memory.

On Thursday last death called to him and he has gone.

His life of three score years and three was one of work, and the fruits thereof were those that come from the love and esteem and regard of those who knew him well.

For twelve years he served as a Member of this House, for four terms he labored as the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and for twelve years he directed the activities of the Department of Internal Affairs of this Commonwealth.

He radiated warm friendship, kindliness and a keen desire to help.

He exemplified loyalty, faithfulness, fealty and allegiance to friends.

A strict performance of duty was his creed.

His fitness and ability are best measured by his rare success.

His sincerity and loyalty are best proven by his host of friends.

To know him was to want to know him better, and those who knew him best now miss him most, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has lost one of its outstanding sons;

That the community in which he lived has been deprived of its leader and has lost a friend;

That we who knew him and with whom he served will sorely miss his companionship, his friendship and his help;

That we extend to his wife and family, whose loss we cannot measure, our deepest sympathy.

That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of this House and a copy thereof be forwarded to the family of the said Hon. James F. Woodward.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1086, Printer's No. 713, on page 19 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Sowers,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1086, entitled:

An Act requiring the departments and agencies of the Commonwealth and institutions maintained in whole thereby to purchase from the Department of Welfare certain articles manufactured or produced by the penal and correctional institutions of the Commonwealth and the surplus to be held and not sold in competition with free labor

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 3, page 2, line 26, by striking out the word "such".

Amend section 3, page 2, line 27, by inserting before the word "institution" the following: "such".

Amend section 5, page 3, line 13, by placing a bracket after the word "county".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. RIDDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 741, Printer's No. 590, on page 19 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Riddle,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 741, entitled:

An Act relating to abandoned bituminous coal mines providing for the fighting of fire in and the sealing up of such mines under the supervision of the Department of Mines giving such department certain powers and duties relative thereto imposing certain duties upon owners operators and lessees of such mines and making an appropriation

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1718, Printer's No. 712, on page 17 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Heffran,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1718, entitled:

An act authorizing the county commissioners with the approval of the court of common pleas in counties of the fourth class, to establish a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; fixing their salaries payable by the county; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors and clerks; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough and township assessors so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned, and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill claims to abolish the local assessors in fourth class counties. As a representative of a fourth class county, I ask you to vote against this bill. The Granges in my county are all opposed to this measure, the rural people as a whole are opposed to it, and a great many from the industrial sections are likewise opposed to this bill.

Now, at this time especially, I want to call your attention to this fact: Time and time again we have gone to work and we have wiped out all the little fellows, we have taken away local government until there is very little of it left, and especially at a time like this, the office of assessor is usually an office for those men past middle age. It provides a job, I might say, for the small fellow, men who only earn in many of the townships a few hundred dollars, and sometimes less than that, but it at least helps them along in their struggle for existence, and I do not believe that anything can be gained by this bill, or justified in wiping out all the little fellows and handing the jobs to a few big ones, with high salaries. We now have under this system the county commissioners, who sit as a board of revision, and any inequalities that may happen in the assessments can be corrected before the county commissioners sitting as a board of revision. Anybody who is dissatisfied with the decision of the county commissioners can appeal to the court and have their case heard there. I feel that we should stop and consider before we go further. We have been centralizing and centralizing. No system of assessment is perfect. Whether you have a system or not of the kind that is proposed under this bill, there will be complaints just as there are complaints under any other system. Our people, especially from the rural districts, are strongly opposed to it. We feel that probably an assessor will be sent out from the metropolitan neighborhood, who does not really understand the value of rural property. A man coming out from the city or from an industrial section, seeing a ninety foot barn or a one hundred foot barn and a big stone house, naturally would put a much higher value on that farm than it really would bring at public sale——

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order of business fixed for this hour, consideration of House Bill No. 1035, Printer's No. 771, on page 1 of today's calendar.

Section 17 This act shall become effective on the date of its approval by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill which is now before the House, has been quite extensively advertised in the press, and it is probable that the ladies and gentlemen of the House are more or less familiar with it.

I do not intend unduly to burden you with any long-winded remarks, but I wish to call the attention of the House to what this bill seeks to do, and what the object of the bill is.

First, the bill repeals the act of 1929, which provided for industrial police—the act which is now in force in Pennsylvania.

Second, the bill provides for a Pennsylvania Protective Service for the purpose of looking after the welfare of the lives, the liberties and the properties of citizens of this Commonwealth in emergency, where extra police authority is needed.

Now, I want to call the House's attention to this particular thing in this bill: originally this authority was in the hand of the sheriffs of the different counties, and when an emer gency arose the sheriff appointed deputies, who were not trained, who were picked up as he could get them, and the system was unsatisfactory, both to capital and to labor; more unsatisfactory to labor than to capital. Then we came on with our coal and iron police who were also unsatisfactory to both capital and labor. Then, in 1929, the Legislature passed an industrial police bill, which is now in effect, and against which great agitation has taken place in the western part of the state.

This particular bill seeks to correct this particular service and to place in the hands of the Governor of the Commonwealth the sole responsibility to command this system. For this purpose the bill authorizes the Governor of the Commonwealth to organize a force of not more than two hundred and fifty men, who will be appointed by the Governor, trained by the order and under the authority and regulation of the Governor, subject to his order's, and no one else's orders. These men will be tranied and made into officers, as nearly as possible like the state policemen of Pennsylvania, subject to the order and authority of the Governor and no one else's authority, and if an emergency arises, application can be made to the Governor to assign these men to industrial plants or to other parties needing the protection of the law from members of this service.

I want to emphasize to the House, that authority is solely in the hands of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, where I believe it should be, because the other systems of having them appointed by the manufacturer, by the employer, by the sheriff, have worked out very poorly, and have been unsatisfactory to both capital and to labor.

When an application is made to the Governor to assign members of this service to the protection of life or property of any plant—and it also includes labor unions and other organizations that desire them—the bill requires the Governor to make an inevstigation as to whether there is a necessity for the service of the men in this particular line of service. If he finds that such necessity exists, he then assigns to that particular place such number of privates and officers of this organization as in his judgment are necessary for that particular service. They will stay there as long as the Governor thinks they should stay there. He reduces or adds to the force as he sees fit, and no other person but the Governor has any authority over that service, or the officers or the privates of that particular line of service.

The bill is intended in every way to protect the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and labor and capital, so that these members of this service will not be influenced either by the employer or by labor, it providing that these men shall take orders from no one but the Governor, it providing that they shall not attend any meeting of the corporation where they are protecting the property, and that they shall not enter the employ of the company for a year after their service is terminated. It provides, also, a very severe penalty for any member of this service to let his official conduct be influenced by any other consideration except his duty to the Commonwealth.

I want to say to you, ladies and gentlemen, that it is not the purpose of this bill to provide a force which will be available for strike breaking. The purpose of this bill is to have this small force, and to send them in where an emergency arises, to send these officers in ,who have police power and the power of constables, so that there will be two or three of these men in a plant under the orders of the Governor entirely, free of any supervision or control or advice by the owners of that plant, and do what arresting is to be done; to have there a force that is responsible to the Commonwealth, to do their duty as the Commonwealth directs under the direction of the Governor of Pennsylvania, and not to owe duty to any one else under any circumstances.

I have given this matter a great deal of attention. I have examined the bill, and I have also examined the bill of my distinguished colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, for whom I have a great deal of regard, and for whose efforts, in this connection, I am sure the House has a great deal of consideration.

I have no way of knowing what the Senate will do with the bills which this House has passed over to them, but I, myself, feel that if this legislation is not passed, the State of Pennsylvania will return to its original situation where there was no legislation of this character and where capital and labor were dependent upon the services of the sheriff and his deputies.

I appreciate, Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, that the newspapers of the State—the gentlemen who appeared before the Law and Order Committee, for whom I have a very high regard, and I bow neither to the gentleman from Allegheny, nor to any other member of the House, in my regard for labor and its rights to protect itself, but the papers have been saying that labor is opposed to this bill. I want to say that I have examined this bill very carefully and I am unable to see a single provision in this bill that would in any way affect adversely the labor interests of Pennsylvania. I do not know what the Senate or the Committee on Judiciary General of the Senate or the Governor will do with that legislation that is over there. I have no more knowledge than any other member of the House, but I do feel that unless this legislation is passed, we will go back to where we were before we passed legislation of this character, and that capital and labor will return to the situation where, in a time of emergency, the sheriffs of the different counties will swear in deputies, and I am making this prediction to the House, that when that time comes, if it does come, that labor will very much wish that they had legislation of this character; some trained force with trained officers, who know no authority but their duty to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and have no boss but the Chief Excutive of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who is the only one, under this bill, who has any authority to order in, or out, or to make rules, or to issue instructions.

I think it is a step along the right line. I think this force will be an efficient force, and that if it is put into effect, it will prove a satisfactory body both to capital and to labor, and I very respectfully submit the bill for the consideration of my colleagues of the House.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from McKean know how many industries would draw from this protective service, throughout the state?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many coal and iron policemen there are at the present in the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. WILSON, Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from McKean know if there are coal and iron police in the county which he so ably represents?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not know; I think you are referring to McKean County? There are no coal mines in McKean County.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, thank you.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, my friend from McKean County has indicated that the maximum number in the force created by this bill would be two hundred and fifty. He has not evidently scrutinized this bill carefully, because the bill specifically states that from time to time a force of two hundred and fifty may be appointed, which means that two hundred and fifty may be appointed this week, two hundred and fifty next week, and so on until an army is created; or two hundred and fifty today, two hundred and fifty tomorrow, and even under the best interpretation, of two hundred and fifty from hour to hour.

There is another section in this bill, which states that the superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police, shall also appoint such deputies, chiefs, statisticians, clerks, experts and other assistants as he shall, with the approval of the Governor, deem necessary for the Pennsylvania Protective Service, and there is no limit in that section as to the number. Who are the experts? Who are the assistants? Who are the officers? He may appoint two hundred and fifty today, two hundred and fifty tomorrow and he may appoint one thousand in one day, according to the reading of this section.

Now, I have listened attentively to my friend from McKean County, and the burden of his argument is this: He referred to my bill, which was passed by this House, and which is now in the Senate, and he would have you pass this bill so that it may be considered over in the Senate. If the approval of the Senate is more important than the approval of the House, why wasn't this bill introduced in the Senate in the first place?

Members of the House, on March 24th, you approved House Bill No. 1, which is my property guard measure. You approved that bill by a vote of 153 to 25. I know that you did not approve that bill out of any deference to myself personally, nor out of any regard for me. Nevertheless, I want to express my sincere gratitude for your supporting that measure, which means so much to the State, and particularly to those whom I represent. If you approve this measure, if you approve this bill today, it means that you are abandoning the other bill. What has happened since March 24th which should cause you to rescind the approbation which you gave on that day? You can't have two loves, my friends, on this issue. You are either for Property Guards or for Trade Police with unrestricted police powers; you either are for House Bill No. 1, or you are for House Bill No. 1035. You certainly cannot be for both because they are absolutely incompatible. Two years ago this House was confronted with a somewhat similar situation. Two police bills were presented at that session and both were approved and when the weaker one was signed by the Governor he was subjected to a fury of the most violent denunciation that any Governor has ever received, and the members of both the House and the Senate were severely criticized for having approved two bills when only one could have been enacted into law.

This General Assembly convened in session on January 6th. When was this bill in this present form presented? April 22nd. If it was so necessary that this bill be considered with my bill in the Senate, why wasn't it presented a long time ago? My bill, attested to by the fact that it is number one, was introduced on the first day of the session, and was the initial bill of the session, and there was plenty of time for my friend from McKean, or any one else interested in that bill, to have studied it and compared it with any other proposed measure before it left the House. That bill, House Bill No. 1, was in committee two months before it was reported out. It was in the Judiciary General Committee, and my friend from McKean is a member of that committee, and during all that time, against my protests of delay, that bill was held there and there was plenty of time for the gentleman from McKean to have studied that bill and compared it with any other bill.

I do not want to be over-critical of my friend from McKean—perhaps he was not interested in it when it was there—nevertheless, that bill was there, and after two months it was reported out to this House and it was approved.

Now, with adjournment day looming over the horizon, he asks you to jam this bill through the House, send it to the Senate, and confuse the issue in the Senate with my bill now held there.

There will be one of two results if you pass this bill. It will either go to the Senate, be approved there, and then approved by the Governor and enacted into law; and you then will have earned the censure and condemnation of the people for having put on the statute books such bad legislation. Or, it will go to the Senate, there meet with a deadlock and both bills will be jettisoned, and then you will have earned the condemnation of the State for, in effect, killing a bill that you at one time approved.

The only logical thing to do is to disapprove this measure today.

I am reluctant to bring into this discussion the name of the Chief Executive, and I say this with the greatest respect, but in order that no one may have the notion that he should approve this bill merely on the assumptoin that the Chief Executive insists on its passage, let me say that the bitterest enemy that the Governor could have could do him no greater harm than having this bill enacted into law. If this bill becomes a law and is approved by the Governor, the Governor's name will become a byword and a hissing in every region in which the bill operates, and I say that with the greatest respect towards the Chief Executive, and I say it with the sincerest spirit of amity and friendliness. Those who supported him in his election are opposed to this bill; his best friends are opposed to this bill; the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor is opposed to it, the United Mine Workers of Pennsylvania, most intimately concerned with the operation of this bill, are opposed to its enactment; religious organizations, civic workers, the Allegheny County Bar Association, which made a particular study of this bill, all are opposed to it. I do not know of any civic, religious, fraternal or political organization that has gone on record in favor of this bill. Why should we pass it? Through a mere perversity, through a mere whim? The best thing that the friends of the Governor can do in this House is to vote down this bill.

I discussed this matter with the Chief Executive before either bill was presented, and he said that he would be satisfied with whatever the Legislature does on this issue.

Let us, therefore, decide this issue on its merits and on its merits alone. Now, what does the bill provide? My friend from McKean County says that he has examined this bill carefully and does not know of any provision in it that would in any way affect labor. Let us examine it. Now, what does it do? It creates a system that is wrong in principle, vicious in practice, and utterly irresponsible in operation. I say that it is wrong in principle. The most sacred attribute of government is its sovereign police power, but under this bill the State debases itself by selling that sovereign power; it stands at the counter and barters away this sacred right of government as if it were mere merchandise. He wants to know how it will affect labor; he wants to know how it will affect the people of the State. It ill affect them in this way: State policemen should be absolutely impartial, but under this bill, with the industry owners paying the trade police how can they be considered neutral? In times of strife their allegiance will naturally be to their paymasters. They will be given state-wide power, and with their strapped guns, horses, carbines and maces, they will roam and rove throughout the Commonwealth and be provocative of strife instead of peace.

How will it affect labor? My friends, under this bill, the people who are injured, the families of people who are killed, the owners of property that may be destroyed by these police will have no redress. The bill specifically states that the State of Pennsylvania shall not be responsible for any damage caused by these police and our Supreme Court has repeatedly held that corporations are not responsible for the acts of State officers even though hired by these corporations. Think of a bill, my friends, so designed that a person may have his home burned down and his body mangled by individuals in the pay of private interests and yet not be permitted to sue in the courts of the Commonwealth for damages sustained. A woman's husband and bread-winner of the family may be murdered and yet the doors of civil justice are slammed in her face.

He tells you that this Protective Service will be under the exclusive control of the Governor and he insists upon and emphasizes that particular feature, and that, my friends, is one of the particular reasons why it is such vicious legislation. These police will have all the power of State troopers, and under an administration unfriendly to labor—I do not say that this one is unfriendly—you do not know what may come in the future. With a Governor unfriendly to labor, and inconsiderate of the public welfare, these police may be used as Cossacks to strike terror into the hearts of people in the coal fields and other strike-affected areas.

Is anything wrong with this bill? Mr. Speaker, as one who has conscientiously studied this problem, as one who is sincerely anxious to be of service to this House, I am forced to the conclusion that the system created by this bill is malicious and vicious and malignant; it is sinister and diabolical. It is a throw-back to the private police and the gold-bought bravos of the great feudal lords of the past. I do not think that the sponsor of this bill is fully aware of the dragon's teeth that this system will sow.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from McKean has only an academic interest, and I say this with no disrespect, but he has only an academic interest in this problem. In answer to a question, when I interrogated him, he said that there was no coal and iron police in his county. In answer to my question, he did not know how many coal and iron police there were in the State. There are over twelve hundred at the present time. The Governor has stated that the object of this bill is to replace the coal and iron policemen, and how can you replace twelve hundred with two hundred and fifty, and that is the most conclusive reply to his statements that it limits the force to two hundred and fifty. It does nothing of the kind. There is no limit to the number that may be appointed by this bill. In Alegheny county we have had plenty of coal and iron police. I will not unduly lengthen my discussion, but I want merely to call your attention to this fact: The western part of Pennsylvania has suffered severely from the coal and iron police. I have personally witnessed with my own eyes some of the outrages perpetrated by them. John Barcoski, whose wanton murder at the hands of the coal and iron police was but the culmination of years of revolting incidents of brutality, was done to death in my legislative district but a short distance from my home. I was attorney for the prosecution in the criminal action brought against those responsible for this heinous crime, and I personally investigated the scene of the murder. Let me tell you, John Barcoski was attacked in a private home and this bill permits police to enter private homes. On the walls of that home I saw blood stains three or four feet above the door, and it was proven at the trial of the case that Coal and Iron Policeman H. P. Watts, while John Barcoski was lying on the floor, struck him on the head with the butt end of his revolver with such force that the blood spurted the height of those grewsome splotches. While John Barcoski was lying in the coal and iron police barracks at Imperial, Pennsylvania, Lieutenant Lyster, of the coal and iron police, ran and leaped upon his chest, breaking the sternum bone. And while he was lying there, his head a mass of coagulated blood, Lieutenant Lyster picked up a poker and beat this poor fellow over the head and body until the poker was bent. Then he straightened out the poker, as a blacksmith might straighten out a piece of metal he was hammering and then on the anvil of this poor miner's head he renewed the mad torture. For four hours John Barcoski was whipped and kicked and struck and manhandled by these two human tigers, until his face was beaten and distorted beyond recognition, until his ribs protruded his flesh, until there was scarcely a bone in his body that remained unbroken. Of course, John Barcoski was a humble and obscure figure, but the horror of his death made him the symbol of the victimization by coal and iron police and throughout the State he was considered a martyr to the fight for coal and iron police reform, and now, after two years of fighting for a worth-while reform we are confronted with a bill that seeks to perpetuate the system that murdered John Barcoski. We are confronted with a bill that puts into the hands of irresponsible individuals the sovereign power of the State.

Members of the House, I respectfully ask you to vote down this measure, and show by your negative vote you will send a message to the widow and the orphans of John Barcoski, that the husband and father did not die in vain and show by your negative vote that this Legislature is not deaf to the cries of oppressed humanity.

On March 24th you showed your courage in honestly accepting a bill, which you honestly believed settled this problem. Today show by your vote that you have the courage to stand by your original vote and not pass this bill which would undo what you did on that day.

In the name of not only John Barcoski, but in the name of many people still living who might be subjected to a similar fate if this bill were to pass, I ask you to vote "no". In the name of the sovereign power of this Commonwealth, which should not be cheapened; in the name of the dignity of the House which should not be lowered, in the name of the honest decision of this honorable body, which should not be ignored, in the name of consistency, in the name of that fairness which you hold dear to your hearts, I respectfully ask you on the roll call of this bill to register "no".

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, no one in the House has more respect than I do for the feeling of enthusiasm of my friend from Allegheny, with whom I have worked so long, and for whom I have so high a regard, and I do not intend to unduly prolong this discussion, but I just want to call the House's attention to two or three things. I want to do it for this reason, ladies and gentlemen: At the time the gentleman's bill was before the House, I personally do not recall that this particular thing was called to the attention of the House. Mr. Musmanno's bill provides for the appointment of guards for properties, and specifically puts no limit on the number of guards that may be appointed. They are appointed by the manufacturers, the owners of the mine, who hire the guards, their compensation is fixed by them at such figure as they see fit, and they hire any number they want to hire. And now, in the bill before you, the number is specifically limited to two hundred and fifty.

Mr. Musmanno has very eloquently described for you something which has touched his heart deeply and which he feels very strongly, but I do not think that even he, if he did not feel so strongly—and I respect his feelings in the matter—that even he would think that it was fair to condemn the police force of Pennsylvania, to condemn the officers appointed by the Commonwealth, and commissioned and uniformed by the Commonwealth, and under the control of the Governor, bceause some time a very terrible incident took place with these coal and iron police. We have endeavored because of those things, to put a stop to that situation.

This particular bill is going along that line, in an endeavor to appoint a responsible force, trained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylanvia under authority of the Governor and acting under his orders and nobody else's.

I just want to say one other thing to the House. These people who under this bill are trained and put out by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, are paid by the Commonwealth, are under the orders of the Commonwealth, and owe no duty but to the owner or the man who calls them in, the owner of the mine, or factory, or other enterprise which calls them in.

It is true that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requires of the party making the request for this service that they shall furnish a bond to the Commonwealth, and after the service is over they will pay to the Commonwealth, the actual cost of these men being at their place, but they owe no duty to the owner or the employer.

There is one other thing that I want to say, and then, ladies and gentlemen, I am going to sit down, and that is this: The bill of the gentleman from Allegheny county limits the authority of his guards to the property, and I wonder if the ladies and gentlemen of this House realize that in doing so, they are limiting them to that property. If you stand on the edge of this property, and a man out in the street shoots a gun at you or throws a bomb at you, or does anything else he wants to do, you cannot remove off. that property to do a single thing. If that company has property that extends out into the street and along the highway, the guards, provided in the bill of my friend, cannot leave that property or cannot move from it.

I want to say to this House that the laws of Pennsylvania are going to be enforced, and if the Legislature passes the bill of my friend from Allegheny county, and if they limit the guards of the property to the property itself, someone is going to enforce the law on the borders of that property, and out on the street, because the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, whether the Musmanno blil is passed or not, is going to enforce the law around that property and see that that property is protected and that life is safe there, and if it is not done by officers of the law provided by the Commonwealth, I say again that it will be done by deputy sheriffs, sworn in to do it, and I make the prediction to the House that when that is done and when labor has to contend with these deputy sheriffs, those irresponsible people, picked up wherever they can get them, and untrained, and subject to the influences in that community, labor will be very much more dissatisfied with it than they would be with the bill which is now before you.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. Very gladly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, if this bill should become a law and the officers are appointed and are trained and equipped, and there should be no calls for their service by any of the institutions that might call for them, how would that be handled and what would become of them?

Mr. WILSON. The bill provides that the Governor of Pennsylvania has the authority to transfer to the reserve list at any time he sees fit any member or all the members of this service, and he could then transfer to the reserves such ones as are not in use. And I take it that you are looking at the idea that the Commonwealth would be liable for the ones that are not actually in use. The authority is in the Governor to transfer to the reserve list at pleasure whatever members of this service he sees fit.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Do you think that the various corporations named in this bill will call for an officer of this character during the time that there is no industrial disturbance of any kind?

Mr. WILSON. I hope not.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Will this force then be in existence?

Mr. WILSON. I think a skeleton force would probably be in existence. They would be trained and whatever the Governor thought would be necessary would be done with them. If he thought it was necessary to maintain part of the force, that force would be in existence.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. And during the time of a strike a corporation has a right to get or call for and receive a number of these officers?

Mr. WILSON. If the Governor upon making an investigation, when they make an application, which he is required to do under the act, finds there is a necessity for such services on their application he would, if he sees fit, assign them to the person making the application.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. What would be their particular duty at that time?

Mr. WILSON. Their duty is prescribed by the act, to protect property, to protect life, and to enforce the laws of Pennsylvania as set up in the bill.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Would it protect those workers in their rights who wish to continue at work?

Mr. WILSON. The bill so provides that they shall protect those workers who wish to continue at work.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Would the union or labor have a right to call on and to receive these guards?

Mr. WILSON. They would have a right to call for them and receive them in the protection of their lives and property the same as anyone else.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Would they really need them, Mr. Wilson, if enough were provided by the employer?

Mr. WILSON. That is something other members of the House could answer better than I. If they wanted the protection of this particular class of service, labor then is just as much entitled to it as the employer. They have the same right to apply for and to receive the same service.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Their duties would be the same?

Mr. WILSON. Absolutely, their duties would be to protect property and life, and to enforce the laws of Pennsylvania.

Mr. JOHN W. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would feel as though I would be a moral coward if I didn't attempt to say just a few words. I was an officer and have had four years experience with deputy sheriffs and with coal and iron policemen and with State policemen, and from about eighteen to twenty months of that time—the dates were from the first Monday of January, 1920, to 1923, inclusive —and during that time eighteen to twenty months was covered by one of the biggest bituminous coal strikes that was ever called in the State of Pennsylvania, and I certainly am familiar with every condition that might arise under a situation of that kind. I want to say right now that my friend, Mr. Musmanno, from Allegheny, has made one of the strongest pleas in my mind for a real police system, for a real policeman and for a Governor to be able to give real service at the time we have in mind.

It appears to me, members of the House, that we are really evading something. We should not want to legislate merely for corporations or industry; we should not have in mind that we want to protect industry particularly or want to help them break a strike or break the union to maintain open shop; that is not the idea. Nor should we be legislating for labor alone to help them win a strike, and in a time like we have in mind, when a strike is called is the very time that we need the very best officer we can get.

I am going to say at this time as between this bill and the so-called "Musmanno Property Guard Bill," this bill is far, far preferable to the Musmanno Property Guard Bill and I am opposed to this bill for various reasons. In the first place, the officers under it are stained with public ownership or control. They are entitled to a certain respect that all officers should be given by the public in general, but if we pass any of these bills we are not helping the public in general and we are not helping the Commonwealth. That is of course my simple way of looking at the matter.

I have gone through this and as I have said, I have met about every condition and I have studied on this subject for eight or nine years, and I feel that the only way to be prepared to meet an occasion that may arise in times of labor trouble is to be prepared properly, and my advice would be to have trained policemen similar to the State police, and extend the service and detail them to a point convenient to industry. These are officers who are prepared and know how to handle most any situation that may arise, and while they are serving the public in general, they are serving both labor and capital.

I am aginst this bill, then, for just a few specific reasons. One of them is that I think it is unfair to any organization that they should pay for any police services that are to be granted by the Commonwealth. I think it is a poor bill, I think there are several parts of one section, section fourteen, that are perhaps unconstitutional; that is where an officer appointed under this act would agree with the Governor, or rather, execute an agreement that he would not accept any employment as a policeman or any labor for a year after his leaving the service. So these are the main reasons why I shall vote "no".

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean County, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, who pays these so-called officers under this bill when they are not hired out to other concerns?

Mr. WILSON. The State of Pennsylvania pays them.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Is this bill introduced at the instance of the Governor?

Mr. WILSON. Yes. May I answer your question, Mr. Baldrige, if the House will permit me to do it, that the bill represents a very careful effort and investigation by the administration as to what the law should be after a great deal of thought and care and attention during the session, and it was introduced as an administration measure and represents the Governor's idea as to how this law should be changed.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I was one of the few members of the House from my county that supported Governor Pinchot in both the primary and general election. He went all over this State, at least my end of it, saying he would wipe out the coal and iron police from the statute books by the first of July. I am beginning to doubt the Governor's sincerity on this coal and iron police situation and I am going to tell you why.

Two years ago we had a similar situation. Governor Fisher was supposed to be opposed to the coal and iron police situation as it existed at that time. We happened to pass two bills and he saw fit to sign the weaker one. Now this Barkaski case has been talked about before this House and in these sessions and I think you are sick and tired of hearing about that, but that is not the first one of those cases. There is a case in Cambria County that stands in front of Governor Pinchot that he ought to be ashamed of. This same Lyster who killed Barkaski killed a person in Cambria County under similar circumstances and was tried and convicted before the judge and jury in that county, and the case was carried to the Superior Court and that conviction was sustained, and the day after he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, Governor Pinchot pardoned that man. That is a record he ought to be ashamed of. That record is on the court records of Cambria County and anybody that doubts it can easily find that I can produce it. That Lyster goes right out to our county and beats poor Barkaski to death as described to you by Mr. Musmanno. The same thing can happen under this bill. Let us come out in the open in this situation; let us come out in the open; if we are going to correct this evil, don't make more of them and have that responsibility put in the hands of any one man, no matter who is Governor. We don't need a dictator in Pennsylvania, especially over our police power. That is one thing the Supreme Court says can avoid the Constitution, that they can act whether you have a statute for it or not.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I ask you to vote this bill down, as it is better to have what we have got rather than to have this bill.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUSMANNO. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Musmanno, is there any provision in your bill fixing responsibility for loss or any damage or injury to property for an illegal act of a police officer?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I say to my friend Mr. Staudenmeier, that my bill specifically provides that before a property guard may be appointed a bond of two thousand dollars must be filed and that bond specifically states that the surety company will be responsible for financial damages for any acts of illegality committed by that property guard. I might say, if the gentleman will permit me, that regarding the bond provided for in the Wilson bill, it is entirely meaningless and valueless so far as it covers the redress sought by the victims of any illegality committed by these trade police, because this bond of one thousand dollars, referred to by my friend from McKean County, is only for the purpose of guaranteeing that the salaries of these officers sent to the industry shall be paid.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Wr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. In your bill, No. 1035, is there any provision in this bill which fixes the responsibility for loss or damage or injury to propery for illegal acts perpetrated by these officers?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, answering the gentleman from Schuylkill, I will say there is no protection for citizens on property other than the ordinary protection that citizens and properties have from the ordinary officers of the law. They are made constables and they have the authority of police officers of cities of the first class, and the citizens and property have the same protection from these officers that they have from other officers of the law. There is no specific provision which requires, like the Musmanno bill, that they shall give bond, and if they do anything wrong the people have the same rights they now have. This does not change any of their rights.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Is it not a fact that section thirteen of your bill absolves the Commonwealth of any liability of that nature?

Mr. WILSON. That is true. The Commonwealth would not be responsible without that provision in the bill. It does not change the law. That is the law of the State of Pennsylvania. The Commonwealth has no more responsibility for these than it has for other officers, and that provision has no effect on the situation. It is a re-enactment of what is now the law of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if there were no other reasons than the answer of my friend, Mr. Wilson, as to the fixing of the responsibility, I would be compelled to vote against this bill. It doesn't seem fair that the Commonwealth should be in a position of, you might say, renting its police power to corporations and the people who seek their services and then the party who is wronged by the carelessness, or the negligent or wanton act of the officers have no remedy due to the fact that these officers are the sole property, you might say, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I don't think that there is any need for an officer of that type. We have enough officers of that type today in Pennsylvania, and for that reason particularly I will be compelled to vote against this bill. It doesn't mean anything to me as to who is in back of the bill. That should not influence anybody in this House, or who desires the bill, but from a legal standpoint and from an equitable standpoint and from a human standpoint, this bill is fundamentally wrong, and I believe it should be defeated by this House.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Baldrige.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Baldrige, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDRIGE. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Baldrige, did I hear you right when you stated you did not believe the Governor was sincere?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I said I was beginning to doubt his sincerity; that is what I said.

Mr. SOWERS. Will you be kind enough to explain to the House what is causing you to believe that?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, my reason for doubting his sincerity on this proposition is because this bill does not put the coal and iron police off of the statute books but merely changes the name.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, may I have a moment? The gentleman from McKean has seen fit rather belatedly to criticise House Bill No. 1, although it was approved here in this House on March 24th by a vote of 153 to 25. And althought on that day he did not, nor did anyone else rise to oppose it, he now conjures up an imaginary circumstance where someone may stand over the property line and shoot or throw a bomb, and he would have the members of the House think that under those conditions the property guard could not go away from the property to apprehend a criminal of that kind. I say to you that the property guard under my bill would be permitted to pursue and capture such a criminal or felon because any citizen of the United States is permitted to arrest a perpetrator of a felony on sight.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. The Chair again lays before the House, House Bill No. 1718, the consideration of which was interrupted upon the taking up of the Special Order of business for the day.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig.

Mr. SARIG. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I do not wish to prolong this discussion. It is lunch time and I do not wish to prolong this discussion. It is lunch time and I do not wish to keep you waiting any longer. I merely wish to say in conclusion that the members of Berks County are unanimously opposed to this bill, our people are opposed to this bill, and I hope that in view of the fact that no form of assessment has ever been found that has been considered perfect and satisfactory, I ask you to give a no vote on this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, while I realize you are anxious to adjourn, yet it seems to me that I ought not to allow this matter to pass without pointing out to you some of the errors in what the gentleman from Berks has stated. I think this measure is a step forward in Pennsylvania. It complies with the law for the first class and the second class and some of the third class counties that had central boards of assessors. In this session of the Legislature you have already passed a bill giving third class counties and giving other counties of the third class who have not had a separate board the right to erect a county board of assessors. This bill is patterned on the same pattern as the third class county bill that you have already passed.

There are a number of reasons why this bill should be passed. In the first place it is not fair, in our county, for instance, to have parts of the county assessed by men who are not under direct control of the county commissioners. It is true the county commissioners can as a board of review change this assessment, but they have no direct control, and therefore in some communities you find assessments as low as fifteen or twenty per cent of the fair value while in other places, in cities and other congested communities, you will find valuations at about seventy-five or eighty per cent. There is no opportunity to get a uniform assessment except by a central board of assessors under control of the county commissioners.

Now as to the argument that the central board would not know anything about country property. This bill provides that assessors can be assigned to that locality and the assessment made by people in that locality who will be under the control of the central board. However, I do not believe that is the most important factor in this question. The most important factor in securing a central board of assessors is to place county assessments on a uniform basis for school purposes. Under the Edmonds act it is required that the amount to be set apart to the school district shall be based upon the true valuation of the property in that district and that true valuation is found by taking the assessed valuation, and then the secretary of the school board says to the Department of Public Instruction, "Our assessment is fifty per cent, or sixty per cent, or seventy per cent, of the real value of the property in this district," and then from that the Department of Public Instruction finds what the real value is in that district. Now if you were to look at a map of Pennsylvania you would see that there are in it about 2600 school districts and so marked on the map. If you looked at what the secretaries of the school boards say to the Department of Public Instruction is their percentage of the assessed valuation, I think you would find that in a great many instances these districts are raising their percentages so that it cuts down the real value of the property in that district, and in that way I am satisfied that the State of Pennsylvania is being cheated, under the Edmonds act, by a great number of the districts in Pennsylvania. There are approximately twenty-six hundred districts in Pennsylvania and it is impossible to go into twenty-six hundred districts and find out what the relation of the assessed value is to the real value in that district. The power is imposed now under the law for the Department of Revenue to go in and examine and find out. Examinations have been made, and they found that there were these great variations in our counties, but if you have a central board of assessors you will be reasonably certain that that board is going to have the assessment in the county uniform, and it means a much less problem for the state government to determine what the real value of the property is in that district.

I consider this from the standpoint of the schools in the fourth class districts; you need more money. I think the fundamental place to begin the reorganization and reform of this question of subsidies to the schools is upon this question of assessment. Unless you get that right, every time you make any change in the Edmonds act or any other act or subsidy, you are basing it upon false promises. I am not from a fourth class county. We just put a similar bill through on the third class counties and I hope for the sake of our schools in which we are all interested that you will vote aye on this bill.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after the eloquent talk on this subject by Mr. Turner, I do not feel that I have much to say. I merely want to make two or three statements of fact. First, I introduced sometime ago House Bill No. 1102 which attempted to deal with this assessment question in the State, excepting therefrom the first class counties. It was considered unwise because we had taken in too big a scope of territory. This bill was introduced by me after conferences with members from fourth class counties together with representatives from the other side of the House, and those interested in a more equitable assessment of property, and now we have a bill affecting only the third class counties.

The other statement of fact that I want to make is this: That if the people of Berks County don't want the provisions of his bill, they don't have to have it. It is not in any way mandatory. It provides that the county commissioners in any county may set up this basis of assessment by resolution after approval by the courts and that the question of salaries to employees is left to the salary board so that they may be guided by local sentiment. I ask you to pass this bill as you did that for the third class counties.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, coming from a fourth class county as I do, I wish to state this as emphatically as I possibly can, that we are a unit in being opposed to this bill. We feel that if the people are competent to choose us and send us here and decide whether we are going to be representatives of the people, that the people back home are competent to vote for and decide who is to assess their property in their respective wards. Don't forget the fact that this bill only pertains to towns, boroughs, townships and school districts. There is nothing pertaining to cities except that the cities in the fourth class counties may be entitled to come under the provisions of this bill by the passage of ordinances. The cities, if they don't accept this bill, will have the present system which they have had and the boroughs and townships will have the system provided by this bill. There is nothing compulsory on the part of the cities to adopt the provisions of this bill.

Section three of this bill provides that the county commissioners shall appoint subordinate assessors for said district. There is no limit as to the number of subordinate assessors, and for the sum fixed for salaries. There is nothing clear about it, and the whole thing is permitted to rest in the hands of three men appointed by the county commissioners. Why if these bills are passed, there are a lot of fellows who will never want to run for the Legislature again, never. To my mind it is one of the most vicious pieces of legislation that has ever been introduced into this House.

Section 15 provides that the office of Borough, ward, town and township assessor shall be abolished. Several years ago in the coal counties, what did you have? We had this picture: We had special assessors that were appointed to go out and make a special assessment in their enthusiasm in the coal counties especially, they raised the assessments so high that your communities and your school boards in your townships thought they were going to get a great deal of money, millions as a matter of fact, from the coal companies. But what happened? The big coal companies had some able lawyers and they went into court and finally went into the Supreme Court and the unfortunate part about the whole thing was that the Supreme Court said the whole thing was absolutely wrong; that these assessors had overstepped themselves in their enthusiasm. And who suffered? Your school districts and your boroughs that went ahead and erected what? Big school buildings, and so on.

Now in counties like Schuylkill, we have what you might say are bankrupt towns, or next door to it. Why they are still trying to pay back to the coal companies the money which the Supreme Court stated they improperly obtained. If this bill is not a next door neighbor to what happened in the coal counties about eight years ago I don't know what I am talking about. It is absolutely too much power to rest in three men We have not lost our confidence in men and their ability to assess property; the way to decide that is to leave it in the hands of our local assessors and not in the hands of three or four men. Don't place too much dominion in the hands of three men. It is not fair to them and it is not fair to the people of the fourth class counties. I hope that every member will see the injustice in this bill and the intolerant situation and vote this bill down.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman, I believe is in favor of House Bill No. 1631, which gave the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the power to hire and to fire the Public Service Commission.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, that is absolutely correct.

Mr. TURNER. You are therefore willing to place in the hands of the Governor all of the powers over the public utilities.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, not all the power over the utilities, but all the powers over the Commission.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, are not the public utilities under the power of the Public Service Commission?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the gentleman's argument he is not willing to trust three men who are elected by the people to handle the matter of your assessments?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, no, I am willing to trust three hundred and forty thousand people to decide for themselves who shall assess their property, and the way to decide that is for those people to cast their ballot for the men they want.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, who would elect the county commissioners?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, the people.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, who would appoint this board of assessors?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. The county commissioners.

Mr. TURNER. Yes. Then would not the people in Schuylkill county control the situation?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. But let me say this: the board of county commissioners, that gets in under this provisions of this bill, have no control or limit whatsoever as to the number of clerks, the subordinates, and the salaries they can pay, and if they are given this right that will become one of the most powerful political machines you have ever seen in Pennsylvania, especially in the counties where the difficulty has always been to decide, what the underlying minerals are actually worth.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, have not the county commissioners at the present time the power to appeal on assessments on real estate?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. TURNER. Is there any difference, therefore, in their power under this bill?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. The trouble here is——

Mr. TURNER. Is that not the only power that exists over assessments, the power of the appeal board?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. The right of appeal?

Mr. TURNER. No, the power over assessments?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Yes, absolutely?

Mr. TURNER. They have the power also to call on the board of assessors who made such assessment?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Yes sir.

Mr. TURNER. And they have the right to pay them so much a day?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Yes sir.

Mr. TURNER. And to determine how many days they shall work?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Yes sir.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, what is the difference as far as that is concerned?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Who can stand the expense of an appeal such as this to the Supreme Court except the powerful and wealthy coal companies? I have not made an appeal. I have property which I own, but I have not made an appeal. The coal company that holds the adjoining lot to mine did appeal. And now the coal company has the right, as the result of the decision of the Supreme Court, to get their money back, but the individual that did not come in and appeal on the day that they were supposed to come in to appeal, were left out in the cold.

Mr. TURNER. You can't make laws to make people avail themselves of their opportunities?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. You know as well as I do that many people don't even know they have the right to appeal.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to present a petition to the Legislature and ask the Clerk to read the heading very briefly.

PETITION

REQUESTING PASSAGE OF UNEMPLOYMENT INDEMNITY LEGISLATION

Mr. HOOPES presented a petition of citizens of Pennsylvania requesting the passage of Unemployment Indemnity Legislation.

The petition was read by the Clerk.

The SPEAKER. The petition will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Appendix to the Legislative Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize you are all hungry and want to go to lunch, but there are hundreds of thousands of people in Pennsylvania today that are hungry and do not have any lunch to go to, and perhaps it is important enough for us to discuss for a few moments this problem of unemployment.

I consider this problem of unemployment the most important problem before this Legislature. I know that there are some members of this House who do not believe that there are any people involuntarily unemployed. Only last week in a committee meeting there was a man who told me that any man that wanted a job today could get one. I really do not think the majority of the members of this House believe that. I think that you know that there are thousands and thousands of men involuntarily unemployed who are trying to secure work and secure jobs, and if any of you have any idea that that is not true, I wish would could have been in Reading yesterday morning at the time announced to start the construction of a new courthouse. The contractors already had plenty of men employed to tear down the old building, but when I went to my office yesterday morning, not less than one hundred men were standing around there, many of them with their lunches and with their overalls on, hoping that they could get a job.

If there are any of the members of this House that doubt there is a problem of unemployment at this time, I would suggest that you enter an advertisment in the newspaper asking for ten men to do any kind of work, and see how many men you get. But I say seriously to you, don't put any advertisement in the paper unless you want the men, because it would be too cruel a hoax to play upon the unemployed to offer them work and then turn them away without a job. You should have the work for them if you advertise for them. I would also warn you further, that if you put an advertisment in the paper for men, you had better arrange for the police to take care of the crowd that will respond, because instead of ten men you will get ten hundred, especially if you are living in the populace sections of the State.

This problem of unemployment is a permanent problem with us. There are some who tell us we should not enact legislation on this subject because this is an emergency problem and will be taken care of before the legislation goes into effect. Those who have studied the problem admit that the present depression in business has aggravated the situation and made it very much worse than it was before. This by no means created the situation. We have over a million to a million and a half of unemployed in the United States at all times, even in prosperous years like 1929, and now at the present time even the most conservative figures place the number at over six millions.

What are the causes of unemployment? One of the greatest causes of unemployment today is the displacement of workers by machinery. Now I don't want anyone to get the idea that I am favoring going back to hand labor and the abolishing of machinery; not at all. Let us consider the problem, and let us consider what it has done; let us take a few examples and we will see that this problem is not a problem that effects only a few industries, but it is a problem that is generally applying to all industries.

The new combines on the wheat farms of the west operated by one man now do the work of fifty men formerly so that in the harvest season instead of there being hundreds of thousands of hands going out from the cities in the middle west to the wheat fields you now have only a few thousand and they are more than able to do the work and to harvest more wheat than the hundred thousand did before.

In 1919 one man could make seventy-five electric light bulbs in one day. Now they have invented a machine that makes seventy-three thousand in twenty-four hours. Every one of these machines that is installed displaces 994 men. Take the work of making glass tubing which at one time was one of the highest of the skilled trades. Back in the '90's when a dollar to a dollar and a half was considered a good wage per day, tube glass blowers were getting a hundred dollars a week and were considered aristocrats of labor, and today one machine displaces 600 of these men, and one man can turn out thirty-two thousand in the same time that one man formerly made five hundred in 1913. Between 1919 and 1929 the average producing power of the worker increased fifty-three per cent including all classes. That means that they were able to produce more goods with less labor. The railroads have laid off, I am told, about 258,000 men, more than a quarter million, during the last ten years, and yet they are now hauling more freight than they ever did.

What are we going to do about this problem? Are we going to ignore it, are we going to ignore legislation to take care of it? Who is to bear this burden of unemployment? Are we going to leave it to the workers to bear it; the ones who are less able to bear it; or are we going to adopt some method of taking care of it for them? As it is now, the only kind of unemployment relief that they have is charity, cold, cheerless charity. In every city the authorities have been raising funds to take care of this situation. Why just a week or two ago here in the city of Harrisburg they had cards posted on all the poles telling us how necessary it was to contribute to the Welfare Fund, that the need was greater than ever before, and therefore appealing to you to give more than you had ever given before. In all of our cities, this past winter, they raised funds as large as they could to take care of the situation, but, members of the House, I want to call your attention to one thing, and that is, that the total funds that were raised for unemployment relief under all the drives that we had during the winter, did not amount to more than one per cent of the wages that were lost by the unemployment. That is how you have been taking care of the situation. To the man who is accustomed to get twenty-five dollars a week you gave him twenty-five cents. Is that relieving unemployment, is that taking care of the situation? You are not taking care of it. The workers have been compelled to spend what little savings they had if any, and they have had to sell their homes in order to get every cent that they could to live on, and they have had to live on their more fortunate friends and families who happened to have jobs. They have been compelled to bear this burden. Are we going to let it go on this way, or are we going to do something about it? The Governor has told us that it is not necessary for us to enact unemployment insurance legislation, that the private employers' fund will take care of the situation. I have shown you that the funds do not take care of more than one per cent of the need, and I have been told that the private scheme of unemployment insurance in the United States only covers about 150,000 workers of these six million unemployed. Are not the workers entitled to some protection when they are out of work involuntarily, through no fault of their own? When the mines close down at the time they used mules in the mines, what did they do? Did they turn the mules out to starve? No, they put them in the stable and fed them and turned them out to pasture. Horses, and mules, and animals of burden are taken care of in times of depression, and are not human workers entitled to as fair a consideration as horses and mules receive; are they not entitled to receive shelter and food in the hour of depression, when they are unable to get work, when they are willing to work and when the industries close down and they are not able to provide jobs for them? Let me show you. In 1930, when the depression hit us so hard, when so many millions of men were out of work in the United States, the corporations paid out more in dividends and in interest than they did in the boom year of 1929. That is a fact, that they paid out more dividends and interest in 1930 than they did in the year before. Some of the corporations paid these dividends and interest during that year and of course many of them did not. Many of these dividends were paid out of reserves; in other words, the owners of stocks and bonds, those who make a living by clipping coupons, were taken care of during this depression. These dividends and interest were paid from income, from reserves that were built up during times when the people were employed and the factories were running. If those who make their living out of clipping coupons and who own the mills and mines and factories are entitled to receive their incomes in times of depression, why are not the workers who produce the reserve fund, that fund that is laid aside, why are they not entitled to be taken care of in times of depression? Are not the poor entitled to as fair and just treatment as the rich? Are not the workers entitled to as much as the owners?

The loss in wages during this period of 1930 alone was nine and one-half billions of dollars, and yet the corporations paid out five hundred million dollars more in interest than they did in the year 1929. Why should not the workers receive their wages out of these reserves, or at least a part of them? Why are they not entitled to as fair a treatment at least as the owners?

Members of the House, many of you will say that unemployment insurance is a dole and that it will destroy the incentive of those who receive it. My friends, you have many doles in this country today, and I have not heard you worry about them ruining the incentive of those that receive them. How about the protective tariff that protects the infant industries like the aluminum trust and the sugar trust, and make it possible for the Mellons and the Havemyers to reap millions of profit from the people of this country? What is that but a dole, collected from the consumers and from the people who are least able to pay it? If these owners of industry and of the stocks and bonds are entitled to their income, why should not the workers receive something to buy food and clothing in times of depression?

Members of the House, I have introduced here two bills, House Bill No. 30 and House Bill No. 34. I have on my desk at this time copies of House Bill No. 34, and if the members desire to have a copy of the bill I will be glad to have the page boys distribute it to you. I introduced these bills the first day of this session at the same time that Mr. Musmanno introduced House Bill No. 1.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks is informed that a member it not permitted to discuss pending legislation under the rules of the House on a question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I therefore wish to offer the following motion and ask for the floor to speak upon it.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities be discharged from further consideration of House Bills Nos. 30 and 34.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks is advised that a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of two separate bills is not in order. The motion must be to discharge a committee from further consideration of one certain bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I will therefore remove from the motion House Bill No. 30, and make it apply only to House Bill No. 34.

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill as I say was introduced into the House on the first opportunity we had to introduce bills in January. At that time it was referred to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities. For quite some time there was no meeting of that committee, and I finally saw the Chairman, I saw the Chairman on various occasions, and finally a meeting of the committee was held on March third and the Chairman very courteously invited me to appear before the committee and I did so. At that time I told the committee the reasons I wanted this bill considered, and it seemed to meet with their approval. This bill provides for the accumulation of an unemployment reserve for——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on the bill and not on the motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman must confine himself to the motion and not discuss the merits of the bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, do I understand, on a motion to discharge a committee you tell the House what you are discharging the committee from?

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the merits of a bill are not under discussion when a motion is made to discharge a committee. It is, of course, in order to tell the House what bill is under consideration.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not permitted to say what the bill is, but I would ask those members who want a copy of it to ask for it and I will be glad to have the page boys distribute it to you.

I appeared before the committee on March third, and at that time one member of the committee said that this unemployment situation is so acute that we should not agitate it further by giving a public hearing on this measure. A few weeks later the committee on Pensions and Gratuities had a change of heart and granted a public hearing. That public hearing was had, and at that public hearing there were present and spoke on behalf of the bill, which was held on April 7th, Dr. Harry W. Leitler, president of the National Bureau of Economic Research; Miss Helen Hall, head of University settlement in Philadelphia, and co-author of "Some Folks Won't Work," which is recognized as an authority on the subject of unemployment; J. Henry Stump; Socialist Mayor of Reading; A. Estelle Lauder, Executive Secretary of the Consumers' League of Eastern Pennsylvania, a member of Governor Pinchot's Unemployment Committee; T. J. McGrath, Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, Chairman of the Pittsburgh Unemployed Conference, made up of representatives of seventy-five labor, civic and fraternal organizations of Allegheny County; James H. Maurer, former president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and now Socialist councilman in the city of Reading. All of these people appeared before the committee and spoke in behalf of the bill. Nobody appeared in opposition. But they kept the bill in the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities. Several of the men on the committee told me afterwards that the hearing had made a very favorable impression, but that favorable impression apparently was not deep enough to get their affirmative vote to report the bill to the House, and I was told two weeks later that the committee refused to report the bill out and that they had postponed their action upon it indefinitely, with the result that it is killed in committee unless this motion carries.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want at this time to speak for a moment on the question of discharge of committees. I understand that there has been no committee discharged in this House since 1921. I understand that there is an unwritten rule that no committee ever will be discharged, I understand that they have increased the number of votes that are required to discharge a committee from sixty to one hundred and five, or a majority of the House which makes it almost impossible to discharge the committee unless you have a majority of the House in favor of a particular measure. We saw the other day when the question of Sunday baseball was before the House, that one member said in speaking on it that it was the first time in a hundred and thirty-seven years that it had been possible to get the Blue Laws before the House for a vote here. The explanation was made at that time that the reason for that was that every time the question was introduced into the House it was killed in the committee and the members of the House were not given a chance to vote on it. I do not think it is fair to the people of Pennsylvania to suppress legislation in that manner. We are elected here to represent the people, and the people are entitled to know whether we are for or against legislative measures such as unemployment insurance, and these are matters which are being discussed everywhere today. I realize that it is a very convenient dodge for those members who are opposed to a bill not to get a chance to vote on it. If the measure is killed in committee, they can go back home and say to those who were for the bill, they were in favor of it but they didn't get a chance to vote on it, it was killed in committee, and then they can turn around to the other people who are opposed to it and tell them that they were opposed to it but that it was killed in committee and they didn't get a chance to vote on it. Such actions as this enable the member to go back home and to blow hot and cold with their constituents, which is not a fair proposition.

The hundreds and thousands of the unemployed in this State are entitled to know where you stand on the question of unemployment insurance; they are entitled to know whether you are for granting relief to them or whether you are against it; they are entitled to know whether you are in favor of continuing the system whereby the owners of the industry get an income during the times of depression, but the workers are turned out to starve, and whether you are in favor of giving the workers something constructive, giving them a standing in society such as they are entitled to. With this bill apparently killed in committee, the only thing that we can do is to make a motion to discharge the committee, and bring the matter before the House.

This is not a matter of courtesy. I am not complaining for a moment of courtesy that I received from that committee. I am not for a moment criticizing any committee for its actions on my bills in this House.

But I do say we are entitled to a vote. It is not a matter of courtesy. It is a matter of justice and decency to our constituency back home to let them know whether we are for or against this unemployment measure. Regardless of how you vote, you are going to be placed on record as being for or against it. No matter how much you may try to explain the matter, no matter how much you may say that the motion was on the question of discharging the committee, the real issue is, are you in favor of relieving the conditions of the millions of the unemployed. If you are in favor of giving these people relief, vote aye, and if you are opposed to it, vote no, and then the people of the Commonwealth will know where you stand. If you are opposed to permitting committees to decide what we shall and shall not vote on, if you believe that your constituents have a right to know where you stand, vote aye; and if you believe that they should not know where you stand, then vote no. Members of the House, I ask that you vote aye on this motion.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I happen to be a member of this committee before which this bill came and which the members have been asked to vote as to whether we are to be discharged or not. Personally, you can ignore my membership of the committee, but with all due respect to my friend, Mr. Hoopes, I think it very discourteous to the chairman of this committee, Mr. Wright, who offered everything possible to give this bill fair consideration. The members of this committee were sincere and conscientious in deciding upon this particular issue. It was not a question of the sponsor of the bill. It was not a question of what the unemployment situation was, and what it was demanding, but it was a question of determining whether the State of Pennsylvania was in a position to consider this measure at this time. I am thoroughly in sympathy with unemployment in the State of Pennsylvania and I think it is affecting every district in Pennsylvania, but I think when you undertake to discharge the committee which was fair under the leadership of Mr. Wright, my neighbor, the chairman of this particular committee, it is most discourteous. They were granted a public hearing on this particular bill and every concession was made to them, but I think it is grossly unfair in consideration of the chairman in the light of his leadership of this committee, to vote in favor of this motion.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. The motion for the previous question not receiving the necessary number of seconds, the gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. I will Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Berks, have you laid your plans for the relief of unemployment before Governor Pinchot?

Mr. HOOPES. I have not.

Mr. SOWERS. Would it not be a good plan to try it and get his aid and assistance in this House?

Mr. HOOPES. It might be a good plan, but I thought that this Legislature was able to stand on its own feet and decide its own questions without asking the Governor.

Mr. SOWERS. Will you agree to the delaying of a vote on this motion until after your laying your plans before him and ask for his aid?

Mr. HOOPES. The Governor having spoken, said that unemployment insurance is entirely unnecessary and that the situation is entirely taken care of, and the chairman of his Unemployment Committee having come out the other day and in the public press and saying that there is no starvation or hunger in Pennsylvania, and in face of the fact that there were newspaper stories on the question, I do not think it is necessary.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that the gentleman is not answering the interrogation propounded to him.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

A constitutional majority being required on a motion to discharge a committee the Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and was as follows:

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1035

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1035, Printer's No. 771, entitled:

An Act providing for a State Industrial Police system; creating a State Industrial Police force; prescribing the powers and duties of such police; authorizing the assignment of such police to certain applicants upon filing of a bond; providing for the billing of such applicants by the Department of Revenue at certain rates per policeman for police service rendered; imposing duties upon the Governor and the Superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police and imposing penalties.

was defeated in third reading and final passage, on page 1, of today's calendar, Special Order on Third Reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, vote on this bill?

Mr. MUSMANNO. I voted in the negative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Baldrige, vote on this bill?

Mr. BALDRIGE. I voted in the negative, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 192

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 30, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 192, Printer's No. 571, entitled, "An act providing for the compilation and printing and binding of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania relative to soldiers sailors marines the Pennsylvania National Guard and veteran organizations and providing for the distribution of the same."

This bill would render mandatory publication and distribution by the Legislative Reference Bureau of a compilation of the laws of this State relating to soldiers, sailors, marines, the

Pennsylvania National Guard and veteran organizations. It would require a bound volume of these laws to be furnished without charge to every post camp or local branch of a number of designated veteran organizations.

I do not object to the compilation by the Legislative Reference Bureau of any laws which it is possible for the Bureau to compile, publish and distribute with the resources at its command; but any act rendering mandatory the publication of any particular compilation should also make provision for the funds necessary to meet the cost of printing, binding and distribution. The present bill neglects this important feature.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1247 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1247, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Board of Fish Commissioners for the purchase of a boat," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1013 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. STADTLANDER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 5, 1931.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1013, entitled "An act to validate the remarriage of residents of this Commonwealth against whom a decree of divorce has been entered in another State and to declare the issue of such remarriage legitimate," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

An Act supplementary to an Act approved March seventh, one thousand nine hundred and one, for the government of cities of the second class, as amended by the Act of June twentieth, one thousand nine hundred and one, authorizing the appointment of a deputy mayor, and limiting and prescribing his powers and duties.

Mr. WIKE, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2013, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and to amend section one, as amended, of the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteeen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred twenty-one), entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal," by including notice in the title that said ac taxes transfers made in contemplation of death and by imposing upon banks, other institutions, or depositories, the duty of making certain preports; and fixing penalties on such banks, other institutions, or depositories for failure to make such reports.

Mr. HUTTON, from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1790, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and adminstrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commission; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined;" repealing certain sections; adding certain new sections; creating new administrative agencies; transferring functions from certain administrative agencies to other administrative agencies; modifying the provisions regulating contracts for public work and purchases; and generally further reorganizing the conduct of the administrative work of the Commonwealth.

Mrs. DENMAN, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1844, (Senate Bill No. 720), entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 1024), entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare, by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments, with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment; by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work; by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others; by prescribing penalties for the violations thereof; by defining the procedure in prosecutions, and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof;" permitting females over eighteen years of age to be employed in places of amusement until eleven o'clock P. M.

Mr. SIMON, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1977 (Senate Bill No 507), entitled:

An Act requiring the Department of Revenue to prepare and distribute lists of stocks and securities exempt from the city and county taxes on intangible personal property.

Mrs. PITTS, from the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1983 (Senate Bill No. 766), entitled:

An Act providing for the licensure and regulation of certain private nursing homes and private hospitals; conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Welfare and providing penalties.

Mr. NOTHNAGLE, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2007 (Senate Bill No. 784), entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 507), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities co-extensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes," providing for the more efficient assessment of property and collection of taxes, interest, and penalties in cases of the refusal or failure of taxables to make return, and/or where a taxable makes a false or incomplete return; and authorizing and directing the county commissioners or Board of Revision of Taxes to assess or reassess personal property for any current or former year or years, not exceeding five years where no return is made or a false or incomplete return is made, and to charge interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum; requiring executors and administrators at the time of filing an inventory and appraisement with the register of wills to file an affidavit in duplicate setting forth the items included in such inventory, which may be liable to a tax during the last completed taxing period for county purposes; and providing for notice of the time for appeals.

Mr. WATSON, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1973, (Senate Bill No. 186), entitled:

An Act creating a commission to make a study of local government and report thereon; and making an appropriation.

Mrs. PENNOCK, from the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1991 (Senate Bill No. 611), entitled:

An Act to amend section thirteen of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, (P. L. 208), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; defining the words 'drug' and 'poison;' and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law, and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law; and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality, strength, and purity," by further regulating the sale of drugs, proprietary medicines, household drugs, biologicals, remedial agencies and medicines.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1418

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1418, Senate Bill No. 475, Printer's No. 143, entitled:

An Act permitting the sale of prison made goods in counties of the first class to such counties, and to cities and school districts and to political subdivisions of such counties, and to certain institutions therein, permitting contracts for such sales and purchases wthout advertising or competitive bidding, permitting payment of compensation to inmates and repealing inconsistent laws.

was defeated on final passage on April 29, 1931, be reconsidered.

Mr. LEIDICH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, vote on this bill?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. I voted in the negative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Leidich, vote on this bill?

Mr. LEIDICH. I voted in the negative, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 9, by striking out the words "or quasi-public."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 1279 (Senate Bill No. 103) on page 15 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by John A. Rhodes.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1279 (Senate Bill No. 103), entitled:

An Act regulating the bringing of suits between citizens of this Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1671, (Senate Bill No. 285), Printer's No. 55, on page 17 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Ziesenheim.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1671 (Senate Bill No. 285), entitled:

An Act empowering cities, towns and townships of the first class, to regulate and license by ordinance, any transient, retail business for the sale of goods, wares and merchandise; and to prohibit the doing of business without a license

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to ask if somebody in the House can explain this bill to us. I do not quite understand it.

The SPEAKER. This is a Senate bill. Perhaps the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Ziesenheim, can explain the bill.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Fertig has explained this bill. It does not, in substance, change the existing law, but merely changes the method of approaching the question. This bill empowered a municipality to provide for regulatory licensing of such business. The bill shifts from the law to the ordinance the power to license the business.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Clerk called the roll.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of opinion that inasmuch as little attention was given to the roll call and that a number of members desire to be recorded as voting "no," if there are no objections the Chair will withdraw the former roll call, and will direct the Clerk to call the roll again. Are there objections? There seem to be no objections, and the Clerk will call the roll.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. Speaker, I would like to withdraw my request to call up the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman cannot withdraw his request after the roll has been called.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to raise a point of order, but in view of the fact that the roll call has already been ordered, is there anything in order now but the roll call?

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order except the calling of the roll.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I make that a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. GEORGE L. REED asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 146, Printer's No. 701, on page 19 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. George L. Reed.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 146, entitled:

An Act providing for the exemption from levy and sale on execution or distress for rent, of personal property used in any store, factory, or other business or commercial enterprise, and leased, hired or conditionally sold under a reservation of title.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, I desire to call your attention to the provisions of this bill. It refers only to business or commercial property. This bill will take away from the owner of any real estate a right which they have long enjoyed in the control of all the goods or fixtures he had put in or placed in the property.

Just recently I was asked by one of the large corporations of the State to sign a waiver. They wished to place some fixtures in a public garage on a partial payment plan. I very gladly did so. If this bill passes, all that is necessary is for them to file a notice within thirty days that they have placed this in your property and they can take it away and you cannot attach it for rent. I think that this House is not willing to give installment houses that right which has been long enjoyed by the property owners of this State.

Mr. GEORGE L. REED. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will ask the indulgence of the House for a few moments to explain this bill and my reasons for urging its passage.

As the gentleman from Centre has said, it was the common law rule and is still the law of Pennsylvania that the goods of a stranger found on the demised premises are liable for rent. However, there have been many exceptions to that rule enacted by this Legislature. From time to time, certain specific goods have been exempted from that rule. This bill, under its provisions, will exempt from liability for rent goods on which there is a reservation of title placed in any professional office, shop, store, factory or other business or commercial enterprise. I believe that this bill is entirely fair to the landlord, because the provision of this bill should it be enacted into law, cannot apply unless the landlord has specific notice of that property, unless he receives notice either by registered mail or by service upon him, and the notice must specify the particular property or this cannot apply.

I know that there is opposition to this bill, and it comes from real estate men who have long sought to preserve in its entirety the rule that they can have all property as a lien for their rent. To my mind, it has never been a fair rule, that the landlord when he makes a distress for rent, shall have the right to take property of people, but this bill is not general in character, and to my mind, at this time, and under existing conditions, it serves a wise legislative purpose. In the city of Harrisburg, in every city and borough throughout Pennsylvania, you can go along the streets today and find business properties that are vacant, you will find properties which were occupied a year or two years ago, and the only evidence you have today that they were once used for business is the remains of a sheriff's or a constable's sale bill hanging on the door.

I hope the time will come, Mr. Speaker, and believe that every member of this House hopes that the time will come when this business depression will cease, and I am sure that if we are to return to a condition of normalcy it will be by these business properties once used by the small merchant, the small manufacturer, again being occupied. Until that time comes, we will not have normal conditions in business. To my mind there is no measure that will bring about that result better than the enactment of this law, to encourage the man and the woman of small means to engage in business, the man or the woman who cannot purchase outright the equipment or fixtures necessary for the conduct of business, but must secure them under the time payment plan, under the condition of bailment or a contract of conditional sale. The passage of this act, I contend, will be to the distinct advantage of the man or the woman who desires to go into business, because it will enable them to secure the necessary fixtures, the things that are necessary to conduct their business. For that reason, Mr. Speaker, to my mind, this bill is sound in principle, it is sound legislation, and it will not, as I conceive it, work to the disadvantage of the landlord, but rather to encourage men and women again to engage in business. I urge that this bill pass this House.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask you who suffers the most, the landlord, with a constable's sale bill on the door or the tenant who quits business?

Mr. GEORGE L. REED. Mr. Speaker, my experience is that the landlord very seldom suffers. The landlord is in the position—the only way the landlord would suffer would be if he would allow the rent to stand for a long period of time.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, isn't that the usual custom?

Mr. GEORGE L. REED. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't say it was the usual custom. I would say that to my knowledge it has frequently occurred.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, and the landlord is taxed with an empty building until he re-rents the building. I ask you to vote no.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, if you were to enact this bill into law, any lawyer that uses any kind of wit whatever could so arrange the affairs of the tenant that they would never have to pay any rent. The bill provides that all you have to do is to say that the tenant's property is leased to the tenant's wife, and then serve notice on the landlord as provided in the bill, and the tenant will never pay the rent and the wife will keep the property. It takes no very bright lawyer to see that.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 787, Printer's number 205, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, (P. L. 465), entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed, or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class, and second class A, by requiring certain construction and ways of egress, equipment, and maintenance; providing for the licensing of projectionists; requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and, in certain cases, by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class; providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and repealing certain acts," by providing for fees for licensing of projectionists.

was defeated on final passage on April 28th, be reconsidered.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Fulton, Mr. Barton, vote on the passage of the bill.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker, I voted no.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Clinton, Mr Simon, vote on the passage of the bill.

Mr. SIMON. I voted no, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, you have heard so much about this bill, that I do not care to take up much of your time in discussing it. I think you have heard a lot about this moving picture affair, perhaps more than you ever heard before. This bill is designed, as has been said before, to cause twenty-five hundred or three thousand men, through taxation, to pay into the Department of Revenue, approximately twenty thousand dollars. As I understand this bill its sole purpose is to provide six or eight political jobs in the Department of Labor and Industry. If the Department of Labor and Industry believes that the theatres of this state should have further inspection—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on the bill and not on the motion.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the motion.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, you have heard a lot about this bill and knowing it as I do, and knowing the conditions of it, I am sorry that I have to vote against the bill of my Allegheny County friend, and I ask that this motion be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, sixty-eight members voting in the affirmative, and sixty-seven in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair will declare a recess until 9.00 o'clock P. M. (Standard Time). The Chair hears none, and the House will take a recess until 9.00 o'clock P. M. (Standard Time).

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bills numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 665. (HOUSE BILL No. 2032).

An Act to expedite and simplify the collection and payment by banks of checks and other instruments for the payment of money.

Referred to the Committee on Banking.

SENATE BILL No. 981. (HOUSE BILL No. 2033).

An Act to further amend section twelve of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (P. L. 73), entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," by providing that corporations organized either for the supply, storage or transportation of water and water power, or for the supply of light, heat and power by means of electricity, and corporations formed by the merger or consolidation of such corporations, may subscribe for, take, purchase, hold and dispose of the bonds and stock of any company of the same character, or may guarantee the payment of principal and interest of such bonds, or either principal or interest, or may lease and operate corporate property.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary Local.

COMMUNICATION

FAVORING PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1418

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication which was read by the Clerk as follows:

(POSTAL TELEGRAPH)
Philadelphia, Penna.

May 5, 1931.

Hon. C. J. Goodnough, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Penna.

Inasmuch as House Bill Number 1418 permits the City of Philadelphia to purchase merchandise made in the Philadelphia County prisons which is practically permitting the City to buy its own goods made in its own institutions and which are now purchased in part from the State Department of Welfare the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce is in favor of the passage of this bill when it comes up for reconsideration stop object of the bill is not only to give employment to the 2500 inmates of our prisons but also to teach them trades which will make them useful citizens on their release stop the enactment into law of this legislation will not in any way interfere with organized business stop for all of these reasons we favor the passage of this bill which has already passed in the State Senate.

GEORGE W. ELLIOTT,
General Secretary,
Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1496 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be made a Special Order of business for next Tuesday, May 12, 1931, at 11.30 o'clock A. M.

Mr. DENNING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1134, Printer's No. 654, from page 17 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Musmanno,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1134, entitled:

An Act providing for liens in favor of the Commonwealth and every charitable association, corporation or other institution maintaining a hospital in this Commonwealth supported in whole or in part by public or private charity and furnishing therein care, treatment, and maintenance to persons injured in accidents upon the rights of action, claims or demands of such injured persons against other persons, corporations, partnerships, and other unincorporated associations whatsoever, for damages on account of negligence causing the injuries and upon the proceeds of the settlements of any such claims or demands.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, line 15, by inserting after the word "to" the following: "but shall not exceed fifty per centum of."

Amend section 2, page 2, line 23, by striking out the words: "or compensation."

Amend section 2, page 2, line 25, by inserting after the word "to" the following: "not more than fifty per centum of."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. SPANGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 1922, Printer's No. 759, on page 13, of today's calendar, bills on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1922, entitled:

An Act to apportion the State into congressional districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a congressional apportionment bill in tentative form that has been adopted by the Committee on Congressional Apportionment. It is far from a finality, but it is a starting point, and it is the sense of the committee that this bill should be passed on the part of the House. The Senate has passed a congressional apportionment bill on its part. That bill will be here this week. The idea of passing this bill is to have both bills for consideration and for the further purpose of getting more enlightenment and the suggestions generally of the members of the House and of the Senate in respect to both bills. If this bill passes the House, the bill will be messaged to the Senate as the Senate bill has been messaged to the House, and it will then be necessary for the Senate committee and the House committee to agree on a procedure that will expedite these bills to a more satisfactory conclusion. For that reason I will ask the members of the House to vote for this bill, not because the bill is a finality in perfection, because it is not, but it is a starting point that we have in order to secure a satisfactory and successful congressional apportionment. Therefore I ask the members of the House to support the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1513, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the acquisition of lands for State forests.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to call your attention to this bill because it calls for an appropriation of one million dollars for something that we don't need now. In the committees, both the Ways and Means Committee and the Appropriations Committee, we are annoyed by the want of funds. It seems to me at a time like this when we are really hard up, that we ought not to expend money for something that is only wanted. This property can be purchased at any time. It is waste land and we are not in any hurry to add more forests to our now large acreage, so I feel that I should just call your attention to the fact that now is the time to start a retrenchment, and that if we don't start it now, we will be over the precipice; we are on top of it now, and I ask you gentlemen to think this over very carefully before you vote, and if you think I am right, vote no on it.

Mr. LOOSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill comes from the Department of Forests and Waters, and is the appropriation for that Department. We always do pass an appropriation bill for this Department. Two years ago the appropriation was several times as large as the appropriation asked for in this bill. I think this bill ought to pass and that it ought not to be necessarily delayed because if the appropriation is larger than the State can afford, there is no danger but what the Governor will pare it down when the time comes, and I think this bill ought to pass and not be delayed.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me we are prone to give the different departments all they ask for. This is a case of that kind. Here is the Department of Forests and Waters asking for this money. I think it is time for this Legislature to assert itself and decide whether the superintendents of these departments are going to get what they want or are going to get what we want to give to them. I think this is the place where we can start. I have refrained before from saying much about this kind of bill. I generally vote no on them because I think they should not pass, and when I realize that the committees are now in trouble, principally the Committee on Ways and Means, and when you know that we are now trying to put taxes on corporations and on income and on manufacturers and on railroads and on such institutions as that, if you realize the situation you would come to your senses. You have not yet done so, all of you. Pardon me for being plain, but that is true. We have been spending too much money for things that are only wanted and not for things that we need, and if we continue to buy the things that we only want, the time will come when we cannot buy the things we need. That is the trouble today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1782, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (P. L. 207), entitled "An act providing when, how, upon what property, and to what extent, liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements, for the removal of nuisances, and for water rents or rates, sewer rates, and lighting rates; for the procedure upon claims filed therefor; the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims; the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened; the distribution of the proceeds of such sales, and the redemption of the property therefrom; for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed, and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed, within six months before the passage of this act; and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly," as amended, by providing that all property owned by any county, city, or other municipality or municipal division, and actual places of religious worship, places of burial not held or used for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity, shall be subject to roadway paving claims.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 535, as follows:

An Act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and fixing penalties for the non-payment thereof requiring the receivers and collectors of county city borough town township school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act it shall be the duty of each receiver or collector of any county city borough town township school district or poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such taxes which are assessed and levied on seated lands and which are unpaid and for which no liens have been filed not later than the first Monday of May in the year succeeding the year in which the respective taxes were assessed and levied filing therewith a description of said real estate by adjoiners or otherwise sufficient to identify said land with name of the owner or reputed owner against whom such taxes were assessed and levied and the amounts of taxes unpaid and the year during which the said taxes were assessed or levied to which a penalty of one-half of one per centum of any such tax shall be added on the first day of January of the year following the levy and assessment of such tax and on the first day of every month thereafter until such taxes are paid or the seated lands responsible therefor are sold as hereinafter provided

Section 2 Upon receipt of such returns the county commissioners shall enter upon a docket to be styled Tax Return Docket on Seated Lands the returns so made with a description of the said lands which return and entry shall constitute a lien on such lands Such returns shall be alphabetically indexed with name of owner and locality year during which the return was filed and page of the docket wherein the lien is recorded in a book or books to be provided by the county commissioners to be known as The Tax Lien Index

Section 3 After the receipt of such returns and recording thereof upon the said docket the county commissioners shall certify said returns together with all previous returns for delinquent taxes filed in the office of the said commissioners which may have been filed under law heretofore authorizing the same to the county treasurer who is authorized and empowered to receive and collect the same and to sell the seated lands upon which such taxes were assessed and levied to secure the payments of such taxes as are unpaid and the accruing costs and penalties as hereinafter provided The treasurer shall keep a record of all taxes received or collected by him and pay over and distribute the same less the costs and charges to which he may be entitled to the proper parties entitled to receive the same for the uses and purposes for which such taxes were assessed or levied and shall certify to the county commissioners a list of the taxes thus by him collected for entry and satisfaction upon the said Tax Return Docket on Seated Lands to be kept by the county commissioners

Section 4 All taxes unpaid and so returned and docketed as aforesaid shall be a first lien on said real estate liable for the payment thereof together with all charges penalties expenses and fees added thereto for failure to pay promptly and such liens shall have priority to and be fully paid and satisfied out of the proceeds of any judicial sale of said property before any mortgage obligation claim lien or estate with which said property may have or shall become charged or for which it may become liable save and except only the costs of the sale and of the writ upon which it is made

Section 5 Such tax so returned and filed and entered upon said docket shall remain a lien upon said property until fully paid and satisfied or until the property shall be sold in accordance with provisions thereof

Section 6 After such return of taxes shall have been made in accordance with the provisions hereof responsibility of the tax collector or receiver of taxes for the collection of the taxes so returned shall cease On making such return the tax collector or receiver of taxes shall be entitled to exoneration from the taxes so returned on the settlement of his accounts

Section 7 The county treasurer shall advertise the fact of holding such sale once a week for the three successive weeks prior to the holding of such sale in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the county in which such seated land is located if there be two newspapers so published if there be one then in such newspaper so published in the county

Such advertisement shall set forth

(a) The purpose of such sale
(b) The time of such sale
(c) The place of such sale
(d) The terms of such sale
(e) A list of the seated lands affected and their location and the owner or reputed owner of each

Section 8 In addition to such advertisement at least ten days before any such sale written notice thereof shall be served by the county treasurer by registered mail upon the owner of such land and if the whereabouts of the owner is unknown such notice shall be served by registered mail upon the terre tenant if any If such notice cannot be served in said manner on the owner or terre tenant then such notice shall be served by the county treasurer by posting the same in the courthouse and at a conspicuous place on the premises

The cost of such advertisements notices and the service thereof shall be taxed as part of the costs of such proceedings and shall be paid the same as the other costs The notice to be served and posted under the provisions of this act shall be prepared by the county treasurer and shall be in substantially the following form

To ....
(Owner or reputed owner of property)
You are hereby notified that your property situated ....has been returned for non-payment of taxes for the year ....and unless such taxes are paid before the .... day of .... the said property will be sold by the undersigned at his office at the courthouse in the county of ....of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the .... day of ....

County Treasurer

Return of any such notice shall be made by the county treasurer by making a record thereof on his docket

Section 9 Such sales shall be made on or after the first Monday of August in the second year succeeding the year in which the respective taxes are assessed and levied or on any day to which such sale may be adjourned Provided That if any such sale be adjourned or readjourned by public announcement at such sale or adjournment no additional advertisement or notice shall be necessary for such adjourned or readjourned sale

For each tract of land so disposed of the county treasurer shall be entitled to the following fees which shall be taxed as part of the costs of such proceedings and shall be paid the same as other costs

Section 10 No sale shall be valid where the taxes and penalties have been paid prior to said advertisement or where the taxes penalties and costs have been paid after advertisement and before sale or when such taxes are not legally due and collectible and any real estate sold under this act may be redeemed by the owner or by anyone interested in said real estate at any time within two years after such sale by the payment to the county treasurer of the full amount which the purchaser paid to said treasurer for taxes penalties and costs and twenty-five per centum of the amount of tax in addition thereto In case the purchaser has paid any taxes of any kind whatsoever assessed and levied against said property the same shall be reimbursed to said purchaser before any redemption shall take effect No sale of seated lands for taxes under the provisions of this act shall be prejudiced or defeated by proof that there was personal property to be found on the premises sufficient to pay the taxes assessed thereon nor shall such sale be prejudiced by reason of the fact that such lands so assessed as seated lands were at the time unseated

Section 11 It shall be the duty of the purchaser or purchasers at said treasurer's sale as soon as the property is struck down to pay the amonut of the purchase money or such part thereof as may be necessary to pay all taxes penalties and costs as also one dollar and fifty cents for the use of the prothonotary for entering the report of the treasurer and acknowledgment of the treasurer's deed as hereinafter mentioned and in case said amount is not forthwith paid after the property is struck down the sale may be avoided and the property immediately put up again by the said treasurer

Any such property for which an amount sufficient to pay taxes penalties and the costs is not bid shall be purchased by the county commissioners in which event the requirements of the preceding paragraph of this section shall not apply

Section 12 The county treasurer shall keep in his office a book in which he shall enter all collections of taxes made by him and the sales made by him giving a description of each property sold the name of the owner thereof as the same appears upon the duplicates or has been returned to him the time of sale and the price at which sold together with the amount of the taxes penalties and costs

Section 13 It shall be the duty of the county treasurer at the first term of a court common pleas of the proper county succeeding any such sale to make a report and return wherein he shall set forth a brief description of the land or property sold the name of the person (where known) in which the same is assessed the amount of tax and the year for which the same is assessed the time when and the newspapers in which the advertisement for sale was made with a copy of said advertisement the time of sale the name of the purchaser and the price for which each respective property was sold

Upon the presentation of said report or return if it shall appear to said court that such sale has been regularly conducted under the provisions of this act the said report and the sale so made shall be confirmed nisi

The county treasurer shall at the expense of the county publish a notice once in a newspaper of general circulation throughout the county giving the date that such report may be filed within ten days thereafter otherwise the report will be confirmed absolutely

In case no objections or exceptions are filed to any such sale within ten days after being confirmed nisi a decree of absolute confirmation shall be entered as of course by the prothonotary Any objections or exceptions to such a sale may raise the legality of the taxes for non-payment of which the real estate was sold or the return thereof or the validity of the sale for the reson that the tax was actually paid or question the regularity or legality of the proceedings of the treasurer in any respect In case any objection or exceptions are filed they shall be disposed of according to the practice of the court and when the same are overruled or set aside a decree of absolute confirmation shall be entered by the court If such objection or exceptions are sustained and the court deems the defect not amendable it shall by its order or decree invalidate the sale From the decision of the court of common pleas any party interested may appeal to the Supreme or Superior Court as in other cases If no objections or exceptions are filed as herein provided or where objections or exceptions are finally overruled and the sale confirmed absolutely the validity of the assessment of the tax and its return for non-payment and the validity of the proceedings of the treasurer with respect to such sale shall not thereafter be inquired into judicially in equity or by civil proceedings by the person or persons in whose name such property was sold his her or their heirs or his her or their grantees or assigns subsequent to the date of the assessment of the taxes for which such sale was made and such sale after the period of redemption shall be terminated shall be deemed to pass a good and valid title to the purchaser as against the person or persons in whose name such property was sold provided the purchaser has filed the bond for surplus moneys as hereinafter provided

Section 14 After any sale of property or lands for delinquent taxes has been confirmed by the court as aforesaid it shall be the duty of the purchaser or purchasers where the bid exceeds the taxes penalties and costs as aforesaid to make and execute to the said treasurer for the use of the persons entitled a bond for the surplus money that may remain after satisfying and paying all the taxes and costs as aforesaid with warrant of attorney to confess judgment annexed thereto and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to forthwith file said bond in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county at the number and term where said report and return is filed and the surplus bond filed as aforesaid from the time of the date of the deed for property thus sold shall bind as effectually and in like manner as judgments the land by said treasurer sold into whose hands or possession soever it may come and the owners of said lands at the time of sale their heirs or assigns or other legal representatives may in not less than two or more than five years after such sale cause judgment to be entered in said court upon said bond in the name of said treasurer for the use of said owners their heirs assigns or legal representatives in said bond with legal interest thereon be not paid within three months after demand in writing upon the purchaser or purchasers execution may issue for the recovery thereof

Section 15 When the purchaser has paid the amount of his bid or such portion thereof as he is required to pay under this act and has given the surplus bond as above required it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to make the said purchaser or purchasers his or their heirs or assigns a deed in fee simple for the lands sold as aforesaid and the said deed or deeds to be duly acknowledged in the court of common pleas and such acknowledgment shall be duly entered and recorded by the prothonotary of said court in the treasurer's deed book and for such service and the entry of the report of said treasurer said prothonotary shall receive the sum of one dollar and fifty cents

Section 16 If any owner or other person interested shall within two years after such sale redeem such real estate by an offer of the taxes and penalties for which the lands were sold and the costs with the additional sum of twenty-five per centum and any taxes which may have been levied against any such property since the treasurer's sale and which remain unpaid to the county treasurer he shall receive and receipt for the same and pay said taxes penalties costs and additional percentage over to the purchaser upon demand and the accrued taxes to the district entitled thereto and the county treasurer shall forthwith acknowledge the receipt of the redemption moneys upon the margin of the acknowledgment of the treasurer's deed as the same is entered and recorded in the prothonotary's office as aforesaid and if said deed has been recorded in the office for recording of deeds cause an entry to be made on the margin of the record of the deed in the office of the recorder of deeds by marking thereon the word "redeemed" which shall be signed by the county treasurer and attested by the recorder of deeds and thereafter said deed shall be void and of no effect If such deed be not recorded then such owner or person interested as aforesaid shall be entitled to have the treasurer's deed delivered to such owner or persons interested for cancellation The county treasurer shall certify all such redemptions to the board of county commissioners who shall enter the same on the Tax Lien Docket and who shall certify such redemptions to the county assessors so that the property may thereafter be assessed in the name of the owner

Section 17 When the county commissioners shall purchase any real property at a county treasurer's sale they shall provide a book wherein shall be entered (a) the name of the person as whose land the same was sold (b) a brief description of the property together with any lot and lock number (c) the amount of taxes penalties and costs for which it was sold Such property shall not so long as it remains the property of the county be charged in the duplicate For the next two years following such sale if the land remains unredeemed the commissioners shall in separate columns in the same book charge every such tract of land with like county city borough town township school and poor taxes as would have been chargeable against the land had the same not been purchased by the county commissioners The right of redemption shall remain in the real owner of such lands or other persons interested for two years after sale to the county commissioners and such redemption may be accomplished by a payment within such period to the county treasurer of all taxes penalties and costs due thereon at the time of sale and interest thereon and also the taxes and penalties which have been levied and charged thereon after the sale and interest thereon from the time such taxes ought to have been paid All redemptions of property purchased by the county commissioners shall be noted upon their records and the county treasurer shall forthwith cause an entry of redemption to be made on the records in like manner as if such property were purchased by other than county commissioners

Section 18 If the owner of or other person interested in any real property so purchased by the county commissioners shall not redeem the same within such period the county commissioners shall at any time after such period sell any such lands at public sale and make deed therefor After any such sale or in the case of any redepmtion the property shall be charged by the subordinate assessor in the name of the last purchaser or redeemer and such lands shall again be liable for taxes as other lands

The county commissioners before making sale of real property purchased by them at tax sales shall give at least thirty days notice once a week for three consecutive weeks of such sales particularly designating the tracts that are to be sold This notice shall be inserted in two newspapers published in the county if so many are published in said county

After such sale the county commissioners shall make and execute a deed after being acknowledged before an officer authorized to acknowledge deeds shall pass such title as the county commissioners have a right to convey

Section 19 Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the method for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly"

Section 20 The provisions of this act insofar as they are the same as those of any act repealed by this act or of any existing act shall be construed as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments

The repeal by this act of any provisions of existing laws shall not affect the validity or lien of any taxes heretofore returned by any tax collector or receiver of taxes to the county commissioners or affect abate or prevent any suit or prosecution pending to enforce collection of the same or affect the sale of any lands pursuant to such existing laws and as to taxes heretofore returned to the county commissioners pursuant to existing laws this act shall be so construed only as to affect the remedy for enforcing collection of such taxes so returned on which proceedings for collection have not been heretofore instituted

Section 21 Constitutionality The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted by the General Assembly had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 22 The act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws sixteen hundred eighty-four) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the county treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes assessed on such seated lands by authority of any county borough town township school district and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid and fixing penalties for such delinquency authorizing county commissioners to purchase such lands under certain circumstances" is hereby repealed Except as herein provided all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I understand that there has been some question reaised in reference to House Bill No. 535, dealing with delinquent taxes, as to wether or not the five per cent penalty clause, which has been included in former bills, has been repealed under the terms of the act. I might say that that was the interpretation of the act when I was in the Attorney General's office. Senator Scott introduced a bill now before the Governor for consideration in practically the same form as my bill, with the exception of a few amendments which have been suggested, and the purpose in having this bill before the House at the present time is merely to perpetuate the prior raise so that if anything should happen to Senator Scott's bill, if it were vetoed, We might have a bill that would be in accordance with the Attorney General's wishes, and we would undoubtedly get rid of the 1929 act which has caused a great deal of confusion throughout the counties.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred ninety-four), entitled "An act fixing the fee to be charged for the issuing of marriage licenses," by increasing the fee to be charged for marriage licenses and requiring clerks of orphans' courts to make certain reports.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. DEFREHN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order ,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1336, as follows:

An Act to authorize boroughs to sue out writs of scire facias on certain municipal claims where more than five years have elapsed since said claims were filed and to reduce such claims to judgment and providing for the revival and collection of such judgments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any borough has heretofore filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county any municipal claim or claims and the borough has not within the period of five years after the date on which any such claim was filed sued out a writ of scire facias to reduce the same to judgment then in any such case any such borough may within three months after the passage and approval of this act issue its praecipe for a writ of scire facias on any such municipal claim and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments upon municipal claims and such judgment shall be a valid judgment and be a lien upon the real estate upon which it was a lien at the time it was filed and said judgment may be revived and collected as other judgments upon municipal claims are revived and collected Provided however That the lien of any such judgment shall not reattach against any real estate transferred to any purchased during the time when the lien of any such municipal claim was lost nor shall the lien of any such judgment impair or affect the priority of the lien of any mortgage or other lien which gained priority because of the failure of the borough to sue out the writ of scire facias within the five year period or was entered of record during the time the lien of such municipal claim was lost

This act shall be in effect immediately upon its passage and approval by the Governor

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1365, entitled:

An Act to make it a misdemeanor for any person licensed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to practice any profession having to do with public health or any other profession licensed by the Commonwealth, having to do with the relief of any human physical defect or deficiency, to advertise special inducements or fixed prices for any services, appliances or material which are a necessary adjunct to such professional services.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Greenstein, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, will this bill make it unlawful for a man to advertise the lowest price that the cheapest truss could be sold for and fitted?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, no; it refers only to men engaged in the healing arts, and those men only; and, secondly, it refers only to a fixed contract price. It does not make it a misdemeanor for anybody to advertise. It makes it a misdemeanor for anybody to advertise upon a fixed contract basis.

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, would it make it illegal for a dentist to say, "your tooth troubles corrected for $25?"

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, only if he offered his services upon a fixed contract price to the public.

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, that would make it such a contract?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I think it would; yes.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1484, entitled:

An Act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the licensing and regulation of persons and entities engaged in the disposal of garbage through the construction, keeping, maintenance or conduct of garbage disposal plants, including piggeries herein defined; conferring powers and imposing duties on the State Department of Health, and the Advisory Health Board, and otherwise providing for the administration of the act, and imposing penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hagmaier, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, what effect would this bill have on the country farmer that drives into the little towns through the country and gathers the garbage and hauls it out and feeds it to the pigs?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was handed to me by the Health Department, in order to have some jurisdiction over the disposition of this garbage by people who are just letting it lay and rot. It is a health measure. I don't know anything more about it than that it was handed to me by the Health Department.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill, as I see it, is a very drastic bill, in one portion. In other portions it is very good but it will impose upon the ordinary farmer that drives into the smaller country town and collects garbage and hauls it out into the country for his hogs—it would necessitate that man paying a license costing him ten dollars, and it would also necessitate that man building a cess pool and he would have to have running water and so forth to keep that pen in order, otherwise that man will be prohibited from gathering a small portion of the garbage and hauling it out to his pigs. I think that would be an awful imposition on the people of the small towns where they have their garbage transferred and carried away in that way. In the small towns you do not have facilities to dispose of the garbage as they have in the larger cities. They depend on the farmers to haul it out and feed it to their hogs.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, one hundred and forty-two members or more than a majority of the whole House voting in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1486, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, two, three, four and five of the act approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (P. L. 1032), entitled "An act providing for the abatement of nuisances caused by the improper grading or defective paving or encroaching fences in alleys, in cities of the first class; for the establishment of lines and grades for, and the grading, paving, or repaving of, said alleys, and the grading of private alleys hereafter laid out; and for apportioning the cost, and for the filing of liens therefor;" extending the provisions of said act to driveways.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 823.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 30, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 823, Printer's No. 140, entitled, "An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred and seventy-eight) entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto' by adding therto section one hundred and fifty-four by providing for an assistant county solicitor in counties of the third class."

This bill would amend the County Code of 1929.

An omnibus bill making numerous amendments to this bill is now pending and any changes which are to be made in the Code should be included in it.

It is useless to codify important subjects of Statutory Law and then immediately proceed to destroy the value of the codification by making scattered amendments thus rendering it necessary for persons to search through the Pamphlet Laws to learn in what respects the Code has been amended at the same session of the General Assembly. All amendments made at any one session should be incorporated in one bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and at 11.40 o'clock P. M. the House adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.
